

War Memento to VHUP

Stanley A. Wojtusik, national vice president of public affairs, Veterans of the Battle of the Bulge WW II, presents a photograph of a soldier sharing his K-ration with a puppy to Barry Stupine while Jack Hyland, also a veteran of the WW II battle, looks on.

The black and white photograph was presented to Mr. Wojtusik and Mr. Hyland last year during a military reunion in Belgium by a Belgian veteran, who, as a member of the Belgian Fuseliers, had fought alongside the American troops. The picture was taken during the encampment at the battle location by the U.S. Signal Corps. The framed photograph will be placed in VHUP's Rainbow Room.
