NEW LEVELS OF EXCELLENCE

In June 2004, the Kresge Foundation offered a $1.5-million challenge for our new Teaching and Research Building if the School raises $13 million for any School need by October 1, 2005.

To date, we have raised $7.8 million toward the Challenge. Now, we need your help to raise the remaining $5.2 million.

This challenge grant comes at a pivotal moment in the School's $100-million fundraising campaign, Building New Levels of Excellence, and we can't do it without you.

How can you respond?

- V Make a gift to any School need: Scholarships, building projects, Friends of the Ryan Hospital or New Bolton Center funds, faculty endowments, etc.
- V Give appreciated assets like stocks or mutual funds—may avoid capital gains altogether and no out-of-pocket expenses.
- V Make a multi-year pledge. All pledges count toward the Kresge goal.

Please don't delay—the goal must be reached by October 1, 2005.
