Erich Woldan has compiled for the Wiener ethnohistorische Blätter several extensive bibliographies of European geographical and ethnographic works available in print dealing with Africa, America, Australia and the South Sea Islands:

History of Ethnological Museums and Associations:

Herbert Abel. Vom Raritätenkabinett zum Übersee-Museum. (Bremen, 1970); in addition to this survey a bibliography of Abel’s articles dealing with more specific aspects of the history of the "Übersee-Museum" in Bremen is to appear shortly in his Festschrift, Jahrbuch der Witteheit. 19(1975).

III ANTHROPOLOGY IN ROMANIA

IV ANTHROPOLOGY IN CANADA

... The third number of volume 12 of the Canadian Review of Sociology and Anthropology (1975) is devoted in part to a "Symposium on the History of Canadian Anthropology." A brief introduction by Michael Ames and Richard Preston attacks the myth that there is no independent institutionalized tradition of anthropological work in Canada. Four articles, drawn from two previous CSAA symposia on the history of Canadian anthropology (at St. Johns, 1971 and Toronto, 1974—cf. HAN I:2) are devoted to the ethnography of specific groups: C. A. Bishop on the Eastern Subarctic; David Damas on the Central Eskimo; R. J. Preston on the Eastern Cree-Montagnais-Naskapi; and Richard Slobodin on Subarctic Athapaskans.
