He is much better than I, and he beat me in straight sets. It was grand for me—it is fun to butt oneself against someone stronger—one can let oneself go utterly. I ran him around a little at times, and he was surprised to see me not totally infirm. It is amusing to see how he conceived me, and how playing tennis with him made him alter his conception of me. Lasswell is a sort of all-around fair-haired lad, with mental brilliance, physical effectiveness, and the most unrestrained self confidence... The talk is about to begin. Have to stop.

II. SUGGESTED BY OUR READERS

(We propose to include regularly under this heading recent titles submitted by readers, preferably with annotation. W.C.S. is William Sturtevant, who so far is our only regular bibliographic correspondent.)

Feest, Christian F. (ed.). [Special historical number on the Museum für Völkerkunde, Vienna] Archiv für Völkerkunde 32 (1978). [A section headed "50 Jahre Museum für Völkerkunde contains a short history of the museum up to 1928 (by Feest), a history of the museum 1928-1978 (H. Mennдорff), a biographical dictionary of the scientific personnel of the museum 1928-1978 (Feest), sketches of the development of the collections by the various present curators, a history of the museum's conservation work 1955-1978 (W. F. Bauer and N. Kirchner), and a history of exhibitions 1928-1978 (Feest). Four other papers in the volume deal with the history and documentation of specific collections: Anders on a Mexican feather-mosaic shield; Feest on objects from Cook's voyages; Grigorowicz on several 19th century collectors (Natterer in Brazil, Kukić in Melanesia, Baumann in East Africa, Haas in China); and Janata on Heger's Caucasus collection.] (W.C.S.)

Loizos, Peter (ed.). [Papers from an L.S.E. Seminar on anthropology and colonialism] Anthropological Forum 4 (1977):137-248. [Published by the University of Western Australia, this number of the AF contains fascinating personal accounts by Sir Raymond Firth, Audrey Richards, Sir Edmund Leach, H. S. Morris, Peter Lloyd, I. M. Lewis, and Sally Chilver (secretary of the Colonial Social Science Research), along with an introduction by Loizos, all in response to the criticisms embodied in such works as Talal Asad (ed.) Anthropology and the Colonial Encounter.] (W.C.S. & G.W.S.)
