American Doctoral Dissertations in the History of Anthropology through September 1977

V. AMERICAN DOCTORAL DISSERTATIONS IN THE HISTORY OF ANTHROPOLOGY THROUGH SEPTEMBER 1977

Approximately 3,400 dissertations in anthropology available from University Microfilms International were included by Joan B. Peebles in Anthropology: A Dissertation Bibliography (Ann Arbor, 1978). A survey of the obviously relevant categories (and a scanning of others less clearly relevant), produced thirty entries relating to the history of the discipline written between 1911 and September, 1977. Although several titles have been previously noted in HAN, we reproduce the complete culling here, as the most inclusive list so far of American doctoral dissertations in the history of anthropology. (Only eight of these are included in Robert Van Kemper and James Phinney, The History of Anthropology: A Research Bibliography [New York, 1977].) It should be noted, however, that the present list includes no titles in linguistics, an area which Peebles did not cover systematically, and that it seems to have omitted doctoral dissertations in history departments (e.g., Curtis Hinsley, 1976; James Clifford, 1978; and George Stocking, 1960).

LIBRARIES SUBSCRIBING TO HAN

A survey of our subscription records conducted some months ago revealed that the following libraries in the United States and elsewhere were subscribers to HAN. If your local academic library is not among them, or has allowed its subscription to lapse, you might put in a word with the serials department. As a special incentive, we offer a complete file of all ten past numbers for only $8 to all libraries placing standing orders. (This offer is not available to individual subscribers, since the number of copies available for certain issues is limited, and we prefer to make them reach as many potential readers as possible.)
