IV. Suggested by our Readers

[Although the subtitle does not indicate it, the assumption here is the same as in the preceding section: we list "recent" work--i.e., items appearing in the last several years.]

Baal, J. van. 1986. Ontglipt verleden: verhaal van mijn jaren in een wereld die voorbij ging [Escaped past: the story of my years in a world that went by] Wever: Franeker [P.H.--youth, studies in Leiden under Josselin de Jong, civil service in Indonesia; second volume on academic years to follow]

Kilani, Mondher. 1989. Introduction à l'anthropologie. Lausanne: Editions Payot [G.W.S.--the last half of the book is a history of anthropological thought from the Greeks to Lévi-Strauss]

Murray, Stephen. 1986-87. The postmaturity of sociolinguistics: Edward Sapir and personality studies in the Chicago Department of Sociology. History of Sociology 6-7:75-107 [G.W.S.]

Tabachnik, Stephen, ed. 1987. Explorations in Doughty's Arabia Deserta. Athens: University of Georgia [B.K.--ten essays with material on ethnography, archeology, etc., with two bibliographic chapters]

V. Gradhiva--the fifth number includes articles on the Mission Dakar-Djibouti (B. Caltagirone), on Orientalism and Négritude (M. Richardson), on the notion of the "field" (B. Pulman), on Heraclitus and French anthropology (J.-L. Jamard), as well as several reprints of documents from the interwar period, and news of the various seminars and conferences on the history of anthropology in France. While we will continue to note the appearance of Gradhiva and of its reprints series, it will not be possible, given our limited editorial abilities, to separately note all items of interest in this very important venture; we encourage interested readers of HAN to subscribe.
