4-1-1989

Student Government Awards for Teaching Excellence
Micelle A. Salata is the recipient of a scholarship awarded by the IAMS Company. She is shown here with Dr. Thomas Mayberry of IAMS and Dean Andrews.

Gail L. Janson (V'89), the recipient of the Westminster Kennel Foundation scholarship, received a plaque acknowledging the award from Mrs. Robert E. Lindani during the Westminster Kennel Club dog show.

Student Government Awards for Teaching Excellence

The ballroom at the Hotel Du Pont in Wilmington provided a festive setting for the Second Annual Student Government Teaching Awards Dinner. A capacity crowd of students, faculty, staff and alumni attended; 160 in all. Short speeches were made, awards were presented, and a great time was had by all.

The program was underwritten in part by the following donors: The Upjohn Company, Baxter Alternate Care Division: Schering Animal Health; American Animal Hospital Association; E.M. Diagnostic Systems, Inc.; Hills Pet Products; Pennsylvania Veterinary Medical Association; University of Pennsylvania School of Veterinary Medicine Alumni Society; Dr. and Mrs. Edwin J. Andrews; General Ecostopak, Inc.; Peterson Imaging, Inc.

The Norden Faculty Teaching Award was presented to Dr. Charles D. Newlin, professor of orthopedic surgery. Dr. Ken Sadunaga (V'85), a resident in surgery, received the IAMS Company Resident Award. The William B. Boucher Award for Outstanding Teaching at New Bolton Center by a House Officer was presented to Dr. Patricia Blakeslee (V'88), an intern in field service. Dr. M. Beth Callon (V'88), an intern at VHUP, received the Dr. and Mrs. Jules Silver Intern Briskie Manner Award. Dr. David Nonomske (V'88), Jacques Jonny Professor of Orthopedic Surgery, received the Beecham Research Award. Dr. Deborah M. Gillette, assistant professor of pathology, received the Christian and Mary Lindeback Award for Distinguished Teaching.

Each year the classes present The Veterinary Student Government Teaching Awards. The senior class presents awards to four faculty and staff members. The recipients of the Class of 1989 Teaching Awards were: Dr. Deanna Purvis (V'88), an intern at VHUP; Dr. Ken Humber, lecturer in medicine at New Bolton Center; Dr. Kim Olsen, resident at VHUP; and Mary Yampagila, a technician at New Bolton Center.

Dr. Peter Dodson, associate professor of anatomy, received the Class of 1992 Award. The Class of 1991 presented its Award to Dr. Steven Elsbury, assistant professor of pharmacology. Dr. Charles F. Reid, professor of radiology, received the Class of 1990 Award.

Dr. Deanna Purvis receives her award from David C. Sweet (V'89).

Dr. Humber is presented the award.

Dr. Kim Olsen.

Dr. Steven Elsbury.

Mary Yampagila receives her award.

Dr. Charles Reid receives the award from James C. Camilleri (V'90).

Dr. Peter Dodson accepts the award from Howard N. Xum (V'92).

Kathy Mockler (V'90), president of the Veterinary Medical Student Government, presents the Norden Award to Dr. Charles Newton.

Dr. Callon accepts the Silver Award from Dr. Darryl Bley.

Dr. Blakeslee accepts the Boucher Award from Dr. Boucher.

Dr. David Mayberry, IAMS Company, presents the IAMS Award to Dr. Sadunaga. (V'89) and Carolyn E. Lloyd (V'89) were the recipients of the Samuel Schoddy Memorial Scholarships made available by the Pennsylvania Veterinary Foundation.

Scholarships

Amy L. Grice is the recipient of the Amlan Foundation Scholarship. The committee also was impressed by the application of Susan Hokore and made an award to her too. The New Jersey Veterinary Education Foundation has made a contribution of $1,000 to the Richard Dorr Memorial Scholarship Fund.

The Lancaster Kennel Club has awarded five scholarships to the following students: Donna Marina Durnbach, Mary E. Kirk, Michael R. Moyer, Amy Wenger and Kim M. Zorbauh. Steven Milden is the recipient of a scholarship provided by the Burlington County Kennel Club. He also received a scholarship from the Plainfield Kennel Club. A second scholarship by the Plainfield Kennel Club was awarded to Lawrence Hebecchi. Laurie M. Gnimela (V'89) and Carolyn E. Lloyd (V'89) were the recipients of the Samuel Schoddy Memorial Scholarships made available by the Pennsylvania Veterinary Foundation.