III. European Association of Social Anthropologists--At the third biannual conference of the EASA in Oslo, 24-27 June, 1994, sessions were held on the History of European Anthropology for the third time. They were convened by Jan de Wolf (Utrecht) on behalf of the History of European Anthropology Network (HEAN) established in Prague, August 1992. Fifteen papers were presented during two afternoon sessions, the first a general session, the second on ethics and anthropology from a historical perspective. The former included papers by I. Strecker, Mainz (constraints on anthropological discourse); H. Vermeulen, Leiden (plural origins and multiple paradigms in late 18th century European anthropology); K. Fink, Northfield (Kant's dialogue with storm and stress anthropology); B. Jezernik, Ljubljana (18th century discovery of a savage people in Europe); J. Leopold, Los Angeles (Tylor and the concept of survivals); H. Garcia Valencia, Bristol (ethnography in the British Museum); J. Stagl, Salzburg (the Austrian roots of Malinowski). The ethics session included J. Llobera, London (Rousseau and Herder); R. Parkin, Krakow (Robert Hertz); J. de Wolf, Utrecht (H. Junod); P. Pels, Amsterdam (British colonial administrators, 1890-1940); J. van Bremen, Leiden (Japanese colonial anthropology); L. Soysal, Harvard/Berlin (the state and anthropology in early republican Turkey); D. Knezevic-Hocevar, Ljubljana (Bozo Skerlj, Slovene anthropologist); M. Kempny Warsaw (roots of contemporary Polish anthropology). Speakers from Spain, Portugal and Italy who had expressed interest were unable to participate, due to the high cost of travel. Although publication of the proceedings is not foreseeable, a selection of papers may be offered to the journal History and Anthropology. Further sessions of the HEAN network are planned for the next EASA conference, to be held in the sumer of 1996, probably in the South of Europe. The address of the HEAN secretary is Dr. Jan de Wolf, Department of Cultural Anthropology, University of Utrecht, PO Box 80.140, 3508 TC Utrecht, the Netherlands. (HVF)

ANNOUNCEMENTS

The Future of the History of Anthropology--Volume eight of the History of Anthropology series ("Völksgeist as Method and Ethic: Essays on Boasian Ethnography and the German Anthropological Tradition"--which has just gone into production), will be the last in the series under the editorship of George Stocking. The series will continue under the editorship of Richard Handler, Professor of Anthropology at the University of Virginia, who has contributed several essays to the earlier volumes, and who has been chosen as editor-designate. There will be a transition volume, to be edited jointly by Handler and Stocking, devoted to the historiography of anthropology. Although the volume will include retrospective views of the development of the history of anthropology since its efflorescence in the 1960s, and critical evaluations of the series itself, the emphasis will be on discussions of possible future directions (and redirections) that may broaden and enrich the historiography of anthropology, without sacrificing the commitment to historiographical craft which has been a hallmark of the series. In addition to generalized historiographic and critical material, the editors are particularly interested in including substantive essays which exemplify, in relation to specific historical issues and materials, alternative approaches to the history of anthropology. Anyone who would like to submit or to propose such an article should communicate with either Handler (Cabell Hall, University of Virginia, Charlottesville, VA 22903) or Stocking (as indicated on the second page of this issue).
