IV. Suggested by our Readers

[Although the subtitle does not indicate it, the assumption here is the same as in the preceding section: we list "recent" work—i.e., items appearing in the last several years. Entries without initials were contributed by G.W.S.

Occasionally, readers call our attention to errors in the entries, usually of a minor typographical character. Typing the entries is a burdensome task (undertaken normally by G.W.S.), and under the pressure of getting HAN out, some proofreading errors occasionally slip by. For these we offer a blanket apology, but will not normally attempt corrections.

Once again, we call attention to the listings in the Bulletin of the History of Archaeology, the entries in the annual bibliographies of Isis, and those in the Bulletin d'information de la SFHSH [Société française pour l'histoire des sciences de l'homme]—each of which takes information from HAN, as we do from them—but only some of which is included here.]

Hauschild, Thomas, ed. 1995. Lebenslust und Fremdenfurcht. Ethnologie im Dritten Reich. Frankfurt a.M.: Suhrkamp Verlag 1995 [seven essays, with introduction, and an annotated list compiled by Berthold Riese of no fewer than 70 ethnologists from Germany and Austria who were exiled or persecuted during the Nazi period (cf. Anthropos 86:576-80)--H.F.V.]

Pützstück, Lothar. 1995. 'Symphonie in Moll'. Julius Lips and die Kölner Völkerkunde. Pfaffenweiler: Centaurus (Kulturen in Wandel 4) [PhD dissertation at the University of Cologne on connections between Julius Lips and ethnology during the nazi period in Köln—H.F.V.]

Robinson, Clayton. 1993 J.C. Boileau Grant: Anatomist extraordinary. Markham, Ont.: Fitzhenry & Whiteside [Grant made anthropometric studies of northern Denes and Algonkians for the National Museum of Canada in the 1920s and 30s—B.R.]

ANNOUNCEMENTS

I. History of anthropology in Europe

At the fourth biannual conference of EASA (European Association of Social Anthropologists) held at Barcelona, 12-15 July 1996, sessions on the history of anthropology will be organised for the fourth time, this time again in connection with the History of European Anthropology Network (HEAN), established in Prague in 1992. Proposals have been made by Jan de Wolf, secretary of HEAN, as well as by Jan van Bremen (Leiden) and Levent Soysal (Berlin). The theme will be "Beyond the Canon: Alternative Histories of Anthropology." Write to: Dr. Jan de Wolf, Department of Cultural Anthropology, University of Utrecht, PO Box 80.140, 3508 TC Utrecht, The Netherlands; tel. +31-30-2531950; fax: +31-30-2534666; E-mail: wol@fsw.ruu.nl (from 1.1.1996: j.dewolf@fsw.ruu.nl).
