7-1-1990

Scholarships
Dr. Darryl N. Blery, professor of radiology and Chief, Department of Clinical Studies (Philadelphia), was awarded the Distinguished Alumnus Award by The Animal Medical Center, New York.

The first Dr. Morris L. Ziskind Prize was awarded to Cynthia DiBuono (V’92). The prize is given to the student with the highest combined grade in Poultry Management.

Overseers, won an Emmy award for his segment on wild horses.

The 1990-91 Kennett Area United Fund Drive.

Or. Nancy D. Andrews (V’67) has been appointed assistant professor of sports medicine in the department of physical education at Auburn University in June. He was convener of the 13th Charles River Prize Award, the highest honor bestowed by the Association. Dr. Churchill served as president of the AAEP in 1998 and was a member of the organization’s executive board.

At the recent ACVIM meeting in Washington, DC, Dr. Jorg Bucheler received the Smith-Kline-Beacham resident award for this presentation entitled “Transfusion of A and B blood in cats.” Dr. Bucheler has been the Transfusion Medicine Fellow for the past year.

Dr. Leslie Dierauf (V’74) has been appointed assistant professor of medicine, was associate professor of medicine and pathology. Dr. William A. Moyu (V’90) is an intern in field service. Dr. Abby Masson (V’87) and Dr. Laura Reilly (V’89) are residents in medicine. Dr. Elizabeth Laws, Tufts University, ‘89 and Dr. Eric Parente, New York State University/Cornell, ‘89 are residents in surgery. Dr. Paul Kerns (V’79) is the new resident in avian medicine and pathology. Dr. Celeste Bowright and Dr. Forrest Ross Rich are junior surgery clinicians.

Dr. Wolfgang Kaehn (V’90) has been anonymous professor in large animal reproduction from the University of Munich. His primary interest is neonatal medicine and he is here to work in the new neonatal unit at NBC.

Dr. Monica Griti-Davis from the University of Hong Kong, is the new fellow in Dr. Giger’s NIH-funded Transfusion Medicine Academic Award Program.

Dr. Urs Giger was promoted to associate professor of medicine and medical genetics in Clinical Studies (Philadelphia). The Devon Rex Congress recently honored Dr. Giger for his research work on neonatal medleyrthrols and aneuploidy. The organization presented him the “1990 Randy Award,” which is given annually to an individual or organization contributing to the betterment of the Devon Rex breed.

Dr. Edwin A. Churchill (V’41) received a Distinguished Life Member award from the American Association of Equine Practitioners, the highest honor bestowed by the Association. Dr. Churchill has been an active member of the AAEP for 34 years and was recognized for his outstanding service to the Association and dedication to the veterinary profession.

At the recent ACVIM meeting in Washington, DC, Dr. Jorg Bucheler received the Smith-Kline-Beacham resident award for this presentation entitled “Transfusion of A and B blood in cats.” Dr. Bucheler has been the Transfusion Medicine Fellow for the past year.

Dr. Leslie Dierauf (V’74) has been appointed assistant professor of medicine, was associate professor of medicine and pathology. Dr. William A. Moyu (V’90) is an intern in field service. Dr. Abby Masson (V’87) and Dr. Laura Reilly (V’89) are residents in medicine. Dr. Elizabeth Laws, Tufts University, ‘89 and Dr. Eric Parente, New York State University/Cornell, ‘89 are residents in surgery. Dr. Paul Kerns (V’79) is the new resident in avian medicine and pathology. Dr. Celeste Bowright and Dr. Forrest Ross Rich are junior surgery clinicians.

Dr. Wolfgang Kaehn (V’90) has been anonymous professor in large animal reproduction from the University of Munich. His primary interest is neonatal medicine and he is here to work in the new neonatal unit at NBC.

Dr. Monica Griti-Davis from the University of Hong Kong, is the new fellow in Dr. Giger’s NIH-funded Transfusion Medicine Academic Award Program.

Sponsorship of Clinical Studies (Philadelphia) by the American Animal Hospital Association. He gave a series of veterinary lectures at the 1990 AAVHA annual meeting and Academy of Veterinary Cardiology meeting in San Francisco. Dr. Miller is co-authoring the chapter on Cardiac Electrocardiography in the upcoming edition of Duke’s Physiology with Dr. David Detweiler (V’42) and Dr. Larry Tilley. Dr. Miller is vice president and board member of Cardiopet, Inc.

Welcome

The new interns and residents at VHUP and New Bolton Center hail not only from the U.S. and Canada, but also from overseas.

The intern at VHUP are: Dr. Beth Ann Brockman, University of Illinois, ’90; Dr. Ann Crump (V’90), Dr. Karen Marie Fidell, Michigan State University, ’90; Dr. Julie M. Hetzenrater (V’90); Dr. Derek Hughes, University of Liverpool, ’90; Dr. Jonathon Peres, Koret School of Veterinary Medicine, ’89; Dr. Jill L. Robson, University of Liverpool, ’89; Dr. Cari D. Sammarco, University of Liverpool, ’89; Dr. Lauren E. Stiine (V’90); Dr. Patricia C. Walters (V’90); and Dr. Caroline J. Zeis, University of Pretoria, ’90.

The new residents at VHUP are: in laboratory animal medicine, Dr. Joan Cole, Purdue University, ’77; Dr. Larry Hand, Michigan State University, ’87; Dr. Norman C. Peterson, University of Illinois, ’89; in surgery, Dr. Daniel M. Brehm (V’89); Dr. Catherine A. Popovitch, University of Guelph, ’89; in veterinary dentistry, Dr. Paul G. Orsini, N.Y. State Veterinary College, ’89; in emergency medicine, Dr. Nishi Dhupa, University of Nairobi, ’86; Dr. Robert Moreau, University of California-Davis, ’85; in radiology, Dr. Pamela A. Green, Ohio State University, ’88; Dr. Rosa Mendes-Anderson, University of Mexico, ’81; in small animal medicine, Dr. Christian Johannes Gekas, University of Utrecht, ’85; Dr. Alan R. Klag, University of Montreal, ’87; in cardiology, Dr. Maribeth Bostbally (V’88).

At New Bolton Dr. Alison Baldock (V’90) is an intern in field service. Dr. Abby Masson (V’87) and Dr. Laura Reilly (V’89) are residents in medicine. Dr. Elizabeth Laws, Tufts University, ’89 and Dr. Eric Parente, New York State University/Cornell, ’89 are residents in surgery. Dr. Paul Kerns (V’79) is the new resident in avian medicine and pathology. Dr. Celeste Bowright and Dr. Forrest Ross Rich are junior surgery clinicians.

Dr. Wolfgang Kaehn (V’90) has been anonymous professor in large animal reproduction from the University of Munich. His primary interest is neonatal medicine and he is here to work in the new neonatal unit at NBC.

Dr. Monica Griti-Davis from the University of Hong Kong, is the new fellow in Dr. Giger’s NIH-funded Transfusion Medicine Academic Award Program.

Sponsorship of Clinical Studies (Philadelphia) by the American Animal Hospital Association. He gave a series of veterinary lectures at the 1990 AAVHA annual meeting and Academy of Veterinary Cardiology meeting in San Francisco. Dr. Miller is co-authoring the chapter on Cardiac Electrocardiography in the upcoming edition of Duke’s Physiology with Dr. David Detweiler (V’42) and Dr. Larry Tilley. Dr. Miller is vice president and board member of Cardiopet, Inc.

Margaret Lackey is the recipient of a scholarship from the Ty Cobb Educational Trust awarded a scholarship to Susan M. Spiker, The New Jersey Veterinary Education Foundation awarded five individual scholarship grants to students here. The recipients are: Mary Lou Ciccone, Robin Pullen, Kenneth Turner, Pamela Bendock, and Tiffany Beggart. Christopher Smith is the recipient of a scholarship awarded by the South Windsor College Scholarship Organization, a chapter of The Citlum Scholarship Foundation, South Windsor, CT. The Foundation awarded a scholarship to Mary Rose Feltham. Natalie N. Daniels is the recipient of a scholarship awarded by the Pocono Mountain Kennel Club. Somerset Newspapers, Inc. has awarded a scholarship to Lori Bason.