We Need You!
We need you!

In June 2004, the Kresge Foundation offered a $1.5-million challenge for our new Teaching and Research Building if the School raises $13 million for any School need by October 1, 2005.

To date, we have raised $7.8 million toward the Challenge. Now, we need your help to raise the remaining $5.2 million.

This challenge grant comes at a pivotal moment in the School’s $100-million fundraising campaign, Building New Levels of Excellence, and we can’t do it without you.

How can you respond?

1. Make a gift to any School need: Scholarships, building projects, Friends of the Ryan Hospital or New Bolton Center funds, faculty endowments, etc.
2. Give appreciated assets like stocks or mutual funds—may avoid capital gains altogether and no out-of-pocket expenses.
3. Make a multi-year pledge. All pledges count toward the Kresge goal.

Please don’t delay—the goal must be reached by October 1, 2005.
