“Industry Hall, Above-Rocks, Feb. 17, 1781.

Taken Up at this Place,

(About three Weeks ago,)

A NEGRO BOY of the Eboe country, yellow complexioned, about sixteen years of age, stutters a little in his speech, and has no visible brand mark. He says he belonged to a Mr. Gwyn, now deceased, who had a Plantain-walk to Windward, and used to carry Plantains in a Drogger to Kingston market. He would have been lodged in Gaol, but could not be received on account of his having the Yaws. The Owner may have him, paying for this advertisement and other expences incurred, by applying as above to

RICHARD HUNT.’

RUN AWAY, a Negro Man Slave

Named RICHARD,

Otherwise DICK RICHARD, belonging to his Excellency Gen. DALLING, and lately the property of Mr. Thomas Dolbeare, of Kingston, Merchant. He is a remarkably tall, well-made, likely fellow, speaks good English, is very plausible, and plays well on the French horn; he is well known in Kingston and Spanish Town, having for a considerable time past attended his Excellency, together with a Sambo fellow belonging to Dr. Duncan McGlashan, named BILLY HARE, who has also absconded, and as it is apprehended, in company with the said Richard. It is most likely he may attempt to pass as a free man, and get himself engaged on board one of the ships going to Europe by this convoy. FIVE POUNDS reward will be paid for taking him and lodging him in any of the goals in this island, or sending him to the KING’S HOUSE; and FIFTY POUNDS to the person who will discover by whom he is harboured.’

Kingston, Aug. 23, 1782.

RAN AWAY, about three months ago, a Negro Boy, of the Chamba Country, named GEORGE, about 13 years of age, speaks tolerable English for the time he has been in this country; has his country marks upon his cheeks, and is branded on the right shoulder EB in one, is [ill.] of a slim make, and had on when he went away an osnaburg frock, rather long and dirty, and took with him a pair of new brown fustian breeches; he had a few yawey [sic] marks upon his legs and thighs, not having been thoroughly cured of them at the time of his going away; he has been seen at Port Royal and it is conjectured may be on board some of the ships there. This is therefore to give notice to all captains of his Majesty's ships, or others, not to harbour him on board any of their respective ships, nor carry him off the island, as they will be prosecuted as the law directs. Whoever will apprehend said Negro Boy George, and lodge him in any of the Gaols or workhouses of this island, or deliver him to the Printerhereof, shall be handsomely rewarded, and every reasonable charge paid; and whoever will discover by whom he is harboured, so that the delinquent may be brought to justice, shall receive Five Pounds reward.'

TAKEN UP, at Longville-park, in Sept. last, and sent to the subscriber for a negro of Mr. Virgin’s at Green-Pond, a young WENCH, rather below middle size, without mark or scar, speaks good English, came here in an Oznaburg frock and check petticoat, and beginning to break out in the yaws; her name, she says, is CUBA. She for several days would not tell anything of an owner, till she was much threatened, and then she said she belonged to a free black woman in in [sic] Kingston, named Bessy Steel, or Teal; but on enquiry found she did not belong to any one of that name. Meantime she escaped, and was in a few days sent back to the subscriber from Spanish-Town gaol, owing to her being in the yaws; and since that he has offered her to the Work-house here, but she would not be taken in for some reason. Any person, or persons, whose property she is, will please apply to the subscriber, and they shall have her on paying charges.
