ORAL HISTORY PROJECTS:

Several readers expressed interest in oral history projects, and we plan in a future issue to include a listing under Sources for the History of Anthropology. We would appreciate it if anyone knowing of or involved in such a project would send in descriptive material.

BIBLIOGRAPHIC ARCANA

RECENT WORK BY SUBSCRIBERS:

Fowler, Don and C.S., "Anthropology of the Numa: John Wesley Powell's Manuscripts of the Numic Peoples of Western North America, 1868-1880", Smithsonian Contributions to Knowledge, No. 14, 1971.

Karady, Victor, "Naissance de l'ethnologie universitaire," L'Arc, 48 (1972), 33-40.

....., "Note sur les thèses de doctorat consacrées à l'Afrique dans les universités françaises de 1884 à 1961," Social Science Information (Paris), 11 (#1), 65-80.

Strug, David, "Manuel Gamio, la escuela internacional y el origen de las excavaciones estratigraficas en las Americas", America Indigena 31 (#4, 1971).

SUGGESTED BY OUR READERS:

Bernard Fontana (Arizona State Museum) notes a number of recent articles in Ethnohistory. Volume 16 (1969) includes William Fenton, "Answers to Governor Cass's Questions by Jacob Jameson, a Seneca" (113-139); R.W. Dexter, "Correspondence between Lt. R.E. Peary and Prof. F.W. Putnam on Arctic Ethnology" (177-189); Peter Corris, "Ethnohistory in Australia" (201-210). Volume 17 (1970) includes Stephen Kunitz, "Benjamin Rush on Savagism and Progress" (31-42); W. Fenton, "A Further Note on Jacob Jameson" (91-92). Volume 18 (1971) includes Peter Pratt, "Peter Du Ponceau's Contributions to Anthropology" (147-158); Florence Ellis, "Across some Decades (emphasizing the American Southwest, 295-307); Stephen Kunitz, "The Social Philosophy of John Collier" (213-229). Volume 19 (1972) includes Robert Euler, "Ethnohistory in the United States" (201-207).

Bill Sturtevant, whose knowledge of arcane bibliography should entitle him to run this department, offers (among others that may be included later) several recent titles in other languages than English:

Klaus Müller, Geschichte der antiken Ethnographie und ethnologischen Theoriebildung, von den Anfängen bis auf die byzantinischen Historiographen (Weisbaden: Franz Steiner Verlag, 1972); and Angel Palerm, Historia de la etnología: los precursores (México: Centro de Investigaciones Superiores, Instituto Nacional de Antropología e Historia, 1974) (a collection of readings).

We encourage others to submit items, especially if grouped by some classificatory principle, although we cannot guarantee to print every item submitted, due to space limitations.

RECENT DOCTORAL DISSERTATIONS:

Holtzman, Stephen (University of California, Berkeley, 1970)
"History of the Early Discoveries and Determination of the Neanderthal Race."

Mark, Joan (Harvard University, 1968)
"The Impact of Freud on American Cultural Anthropology, 1909-1945."

BIBLIOGRAPHIES AND SYLLABI:

Several readers have suggested the possibility of listing mimeographed (or otherwise duplicated) bibliographies and course syllabi. While we are aware of the existence of various materials of this kind, we feel that we should only list such items when the authors or compilers indicate specifically their willingness to respond to all requests for copies. Anyone so willing should write to us with descriptions of the material they have to circulate. Alternatively, individuals interested in obtaining bibliographic materials of a specific sort may indicate their interest in our queries column, thereby allowing scholars with relevant information to respond individually without being swamped with random requests.
