

Siebert, Frank T. "Frank G. Speck, Personal Reminiscences," in W. Cowan, ed., Papers of the Thirteenth Algonquian Conference (Ottawa: Carleton University Press, 1982), pp. 91-136. [R.D.F.]

Toth, T. "The Anthropological Department in the History of Hungarian Anthropology," Anthropologica Hungarica 17 (1980-81):109-21. [Review of the work of the Anthropology Department on the occasion of the centenary of the foundation of the Anthropological Institute of Budapest University, with listing of staff publications 1950-80--G.W.S.]

Tumarkin, Daniel. "Miklouho-Maclay, 19th-Century Russian Anthropologist and Humanist." Rain 51 (August 1982):4-7. [W.C.S.]

Whitten, Richard G., and Zimmerman, L. J. "Directions for Miss Deloria: Boas on the Plains." Plains Anthropologist 29 (1982):161-64. [W.C.S.]

Zumwalt, Rosemary. "Arnold van Gennep: The Hermit of Bourg-le-Reine." American Anthropologist 84 (1982):299-313. [V.G. against the Durkheimians--G.W.S.]

G.W.S. = George Stocking

M.C.M. = Miriam Meijer

J.C. = Jim Clifford

P.E. = Paul Erickson

J.H. = June Helm

R.B. = Robert Bieder

J.J.S. = Joseph Snyder

R.D.F. = Raymond Fogelson

K.M.M. = Kevin Mutchler

W.C.S. = William Sturtevant

GLEANINGS FROM ACADEMIC GATHERINGS

44th International Congress of Americanists. The meetings (September 5-10, 1982, Manchester, England) included the following papers: Christopher Couch, "A Maecenas for Manuscript Studies: The Duc de Loubat"; John Gardner, "George Catlin and Frederick E. Church in South America"; Ian Graham, "Alfred P. Maudslay and Teobert Maler: Biographical Portraits"; Curtis M. Hinsley, "Charles Pickering Bowditch and the Development of Central American Work at Harvard, 1890-1920"; Ross Parmenter, "Cracking the Codices: The Contributions of Zelia Nuttall."

History of Science Society. The October 30-1, 1982, meetings in Philadelphia included a paper by David Van Keuren (Univ. of Pa.) on "Anthropological Cabinets: Museums and the Promotion of the Science of Man in Late Victorian and Edwardian Britain."

1984 Meeting, American Ethnological Society. June Helm, convenor of the meeting, is developing a "slate" of invited papers for the plenary sessions on the theme: "Social Contexts of American Ethnology 1844-1984." Volunteered papers and sessions consonant with the theme are welcomed.