Guide to the Henry Charles Lea Microfilm Collection

Abstract
The Henry Charles Lea Library Microfilm Collection is a composite of archival manuscript and printed material gathered by Kenneth M. Setton during his tenure as Henry Charles Lea Professor of History at the University of Pennsylvania. As such the collection reflects the contours of his research in Levantine diplomatic relations with Byzantium and the Papacy, as well as the Crusades. As a result, the collection contains only selected portions of major archival series, isolated source texts, as well as assorted miscellanies.

A) Acta Consistorialia/Acta Miscellanea

The Acta consistorialia [Congregatio Consistorialis/ College of Cardinals] (Inclusive dates: 1498-1895) consist of four subseries: -Acta consistorialia, 1498-1644, 1 vol; -Acta consistorialia, 1517-1629, 10 vols.; -Acta consistorialia, 1657-1688, 1 vol.; -Acta consistorialia, 1644-1895, 219 vols. Each series is chronological by Consistory meeting. Series 2 and 3 have indices at the beginning to dioceses and monasteries. The Acta Consistorialia form part of the Fondo consistoriale, and consist of propositions, allocations, and decrees of the Consistorial Congregation and of the Congregatio de Propaganda Fide, These deal with the assignments of office, taxation, provisions, and grants of favor.

The Acta miscellanea (inclusive dates: 1333-1809) consist primarily of extracts from, or copies of, Acta camerarii and Acta vececcancellarii, with some minutes of consistorial acts. The contain some information on specific provisions, but may rather be used as a diary of Curia activities. Some volumes are indexed.

B) Miscellaneorum Armaria (ARM)
The Vatican Secret Archives Indice 1029-I (See: Blouin, Appendix 3, p.443ff.) provides volume level description for the entire Misc. Arm. series. It also lists the identification number for each volume transferred from the series to the Vatican Library (then replaced with the preface ‘Vat. Lat.’), identifies the missing volume, and contains selected notes. Indice-1029 II is a subject index to Indice 1029-I. For the most part this series contains documents pertaining to political and ecclesiastical history of the sixteenth to the nineteenth century, including correspondence, documentation of practice or norms of procedure, regulations of congregations or other curial offices, records concerning the oversight of religious orders, instructions, reports, literary works, various historical, political or theological writings, diaries, bulls and edicts.

*Pierre d’Ameil (b. late XIIthc, +1245), was appointed Archbishop of Narbonne in 1226. Much of his tenure was directed toward the lengthy military campaigns against the Albigensians, and in pacifying his province.

C) Archivum Arcis [Armoria] (AA): Inclusive dates: 567-1823(?) The items of this complex series are assigned individual sequential numbers and contain records of papal privileges, deeds to land, and related documents of royal and imperial relations with the papacy, including royal letters, and privileges diplomata of emperors; The collection also contains acts of homage to popes, authentications of councils by bishops, and lists of bishops, as well as original incoming letters to the various departments of the Curia, transcripts of very early documents now lost, papal bulls, and some cameral material.

D) Obligationes et Solutiones:
This series is roughly in chronological order, with each volume in sequence according to the type of transaction. The Fondo camerale comprises this series, Introitus et exitus, and Collectoriae. Placed in these registers were copies of formal bonds of debt to the Camera drawn up when the debtor acknowledged, recognized, or confessed a debt, and obligated himself (together with his heirs and/or his designated church) to pay it within certain set terms. As payments on the obligation [obligatio] were rendered, these solutions [solutiones] were acknowledged in quittantia, and likewise registered in this series. This registry system was inaugurated in the fourteenth century. These obligationes, solutiones and quittantia had to be properly settled by a new appointee before he could receive his bulls of appointment. This series provides a trove of limited but precise information on cardinals, archbishops, bishops, abbots and their procurators. ASV Index 1036 (See: Blouin, Appendix 3, p443f.), part IV provides a volume by volume listing of the series.

Microfilm 34 (2 copies)
E) Registra Vaticana (RV/Reg. Vat.)
The series Registra Vaticana is so named as it had been already housed in the Vatican palace. The RV volumes fill Armaria I - XXVIII in the ASV. They contain copies of papal bulls and letters, and as such is one of the largest series in the archives. The RV text of letters was taken from the Registra Avenionensis copy rather than directly from the original letter.

F) Registra Avenionensis (RA /Reg. Aven.)
The Registra Avenionensis [inclusive dates: 1316-1418; organized chronologically] are so named because they remained in Avignon until 1783, when they were transferred to the Vatican Archives. The AV registers chiefly contain the minutes or drafts of bulls and letters sent out by the papal chancery at Avignon between 1316 and 1418. They also contain a considerable amount of additional cameral material.

I) Francia/ Nunziatura di Francia
[Inclusive dates: 1527-1826], Volumes are numbered 1-672 and I-LV. Vols. 1a, 25, 105, 114, 116, 118, 297, 299 and 310 were acquired by the ASV in 1761 and 1763. ASV Indice 1025 (ff 1-70) is a volume by volume listing of vols. 1-672 and I-LV. The nunciature holdings of the ASV fall into two classes: Nunziature e Legazione, or holdings from the Secretariat of State itself; and Archivio delle Nunziature, or holdings which have reached the ASV from the nunciatures.

I) Archivio Segreto Vaticano (ASV): Senato Misti /Indice
After the ASV had been set up in 1611, the eighty specifically constructed Armaria were filled with material from the Bibliotheca secreta from the Vatican Library. The chief deposit was the great series of parchment (‘Vatican’) Registri. The Armaria XXIX – LXXIV became the repositories of miscellaneous Chancery material, and of exchecquer materials, copies of chancery registers, rubricellae from the Camera.
