Runaway Advertisements from Grenada, 1790-91 and 1798-99

Simon P. Newman

University of Wisconsin-Madison, spnewman3@wisc.edu

Follow this and additional works at: https://repository.upenn.edu/mead

Part of the African History Commons, American Studies Commons, History of Gender Commons, Labor History Commons, Legal Commons, Social History Commons, and the Women's History Commons

Recommended Citation

Newspaper advertisements written and published by enslavers seeking the capture and return of enslaved people who had escaped. Published in the St Georges Chronicle and Grenada Gazette between July 1790 and January 1791, and between January 1798 and December 1799.

This paper is posted at ScholarlyCommons. https://repository.upenn.edu/mead/50
For more information, please contact repository@pobox.upenn.edu.
Runaway Advertisements from Grenada, 1790-91 and 1798-99

Abstract
Newspaper advertisements written and published by enslavers seeking the capture and return of enslaved people who had escaped. Published in the St Georges Chronicle and Grenada Gazette between July 1790 and January 1791, and between January 1798 and December 1799.

Keywords
slavery, escape, resistance, Caribbean

Disciplines
African History | American Studies | History | History of Gender | Labor History | Legal | Social History | Women's History

Comments
Newspaper advertisements written and published by enslavers seeking the capture and return of enslaved people who had escaped. Published in the St Georges Chronicle and Grenada Gazette between July 1790 and January 1791, and between January 1798 and December 1799.

Creative Commons License
This work is licensed under a Creative Commons Attribution 4.0 License.

This dataset is available at ScholarlyCommons: https://repository.upenn.edu/mead/50
Run-Away,

From the subscriber, these six weeks past,
Dick, a Mandingo Negro, of a fvalow-black complexion, stout made, and about five feet eight inches high.

Fortune, of the same nation, broad built, thick lip’d, and about the same height as the former.

Jeany, a Negro woman, of the Iamba nation, well stricken in years, blackish complexioned, has her country marks on her face, tall size, has a large mark of an old sore on her right leg.

Whoever will secure one or all of these, shall receive one Joe for each, on delivering them up to me on Grandance Estate.

Murray Farquharson.

July 2, 1790.
RUN-AWAY, about three months ago, a Negro Man, named Bristol, of a yellowish complexion, speaks good English and French, about twenty years of age, and about five feet six inches high, is supposed to be in Carriacou. Whoever will apprehend the said Negro, and deliver him either to Mr. G. Hilaine in Carriacou, Messrs. Snagg and English, or to his owner, Charles Ojia, in Canouan, shall receive a genteel reward.

August 2, 1790.
ABSCONDED from the Subscribers, a Mulatto-man Slave named William, a Sailor, about 5 feet 10 inches high, young and active, has lost the nails of his small toes from both his feet, is well known about the different Shipping Bays of the Island, being constantly employed in their Drogher Rose. Whoever will secure and bring him to his owners shall receive the customary reward.

Also - Young tall Yellow wench, named Maria well known in this Town, supposed to be harboured in that part of it called Montserrat, she being a constant attendant at all the Nightly Revels that are held there. A reward will also be given for taking her up, by PARK and SMITH.

August 6, 1790.
RUN-AWAY from the subscribers, a Negro Man named Celestin, about five feet and a half high, and about thirty years of age, of a reserved look, speaks English and French, and a Creole of Dominica: has the marks of a burn by powder on his breast, neck, and arm. Whoever will bring the said Negro to his owners, will be handsomely rewarded.

EDMUND, R. and D. BRADY.

August 18, 1790.

 Captains of Vessels are desired not to attempt to carry off the said slave.

---

Il est parti maron de chez les Soussignés, un Negre nommé Celestin, haut d’environ 5 pieds 6 pouces, et âgé d’environ 30 ans, créole de la Dominique, parlant Anglais & Fransais, & ayant des ciratrices sur la poitrine le col & le bras. Quiconque arrêtera le dit Negre & le ramenera a ses propriétaires, recevra une récompense honnête.

EDMUND R. & D. BRADY.

Tout les Capitaines sont avertis & priés, de ne point donner passage audit Esclave.

Août 18 1790.
RUN AWAY from the subscribers, about three weeks ago, a Negro-man named Douglass, of the Timnie nation, about six feet high, of a slender make, his teeth very much cut, has his country marks on his forehead, and pitted with the small pox; he was lately employed on Richmond Hill, and has been seen lurking about the Carpenter's yard in the Carenage. Whoever brings him to his master, at St. Patrick's, or to Alexander Lang and Co. St. George's, shall receive four dollars reward.

M'KENZIE and GLASS.

August 18, 1790.

IL est parti maron de chez le Soussigné, depuis trois semaines, un Negre nommé Douglass, de nation Timnie, haut d'environ six pieds, fort delié, les dents limées, gravé de la petite vérole & ayant les marques de son pays sur le front. Il a été récemment employé au Morne Richmond, & on la vu dans une cour de charpentier au Carenage.

Quiconque arrêtera ledit Negre & l'envoyera à ses propriétaires à St. Patrice, ou à Mr. Alexandre Lang à St. George, recevra une récompense de quatre gourdes.

M'KENZIE & GLASS.

Août 18 1790.
DUN-AWAY, about three months ago, a Negro Man, named Bristol, of a yellowish complexion, speaks good English and French, about twenty years of age, and about five feet six inches high, is supposed to be in Carriacou. Whoever will apprehend the said Negro, and deliver him either to Mr. G. Hilaire in Carriacou, Messrs.
Snagg and English, or to his owner, Charles Oja,
in Canouan, shall receive a genteel reward.
August 2, 1790.

IL est parti maron depuis trois mois, un Negre
nommé Bristol, d'un teint rougeatre, parlant
Anglais & Français, âgé de 20 ans, & haut d'environ
5 pieds 6 pouces, & il y a raison de croire qu'il se trouve à Carriacou. Qui conques arrêtera l'édit Negre et le mèitra à Mr. G. Hilaire a Carriacou,
a M. Snagg, & English, ou a son propriétaire Charles Oja a Canouan, recevra une récompense honnête.
August 2, 1790.
FIVE JOES REWARD.

On the Night of Tuesday the 17th current, ran away from the Island of Carriacou, in a small fishing Canoe, Two Negroes, one named Jack, a house servant, of the Conga nation, speaks both French and English; formerly the property of Mr. Patrick Kewley, and well known in the town of St. George’s, about five feet five inches high; had on when he went away a check shirt and Oznaburgh breeches a brown cloth coat with red cape and cuffs.

The other named Jame, by trade a carpenter, of the Ibo nation, a yellow complexion, and aged about 26 years, had a scar on his ankle, and commonly wore an Oznaburgh frock and trowsers; he was lately bought of Mr. William Johnstone, and is also well known in St. George’s; it is supposed that they must have landed on some part of Grenada, as the canoe was too small to carry them to the Main. Any person apprehending the above Negroes is requested to have them conducted to the house of Messrs. Morris and Postlethwaite, St. George’s, or to Messrs. Scott and Co. in Carriacou, who will pay the necessary expence of conducting them, and Five Joes to the captor.

Carriacou, August 19, 1790.
KUNAWAY,

FROM Montrose Estate, St. John’s Parish about
3 Months ago, a Creol Negro-man named Beaty, upwards of 30 years of age, and about five feet and a half high, has a reserved look, his face much pitted with the small-pox, stout made dark complexion, with round Shoulders, his Legs banded, and rather clumsy about his ankles,—He is supposed to be lurking at present about Grand-Pau-vre.—Whoever will apprehend the said Negro, and will deliver him to James Hay, Esq. Beaulieu, or to Mr. Langton Manager on Montrose Estate, shall be handomely rewarded.

September 10.

Advertisement repeated 17 September 1790, p.4, No. 126
RUN AWAY from the SUBSCRIBERS,

A YOUNG NEGRO MAN, named PITT, about eighteen years old, five feet five or six inches high; spare make, and pitted with the small pox, limps in his walk, owing to sores on both his ankles, speaks English tolerably fluent, and will be ready at an excuse if challenged as a Run-away; had on when he absented himself a pair of long trowsers, white shirt, blue striped Holland frock, and round black hat. Whoever will apprehend and deliver him to his owners shall be rewarded

September 3, 1790.

PARK and SMITH.

IL est parti marron de chez les Soussignés un Negre nommé Pitt, âgé d'environ 18 ans, haut 5 pieds & 5 où 6 pouces, délié & gravé de la petite verrolle & boiteux, ayant des ulcères sur les chevilles de pied, parlant assez bien l'Anglais, ayant sur-lui lorsqu'il à parti des grandes culottes, une chemise de hollande rayé & un chapeau noir. Quiconque l'arrêtera & l'aimera à ses propriétaires, sera recompensé.

September 10 1790.

In order of the Principal Officers

Advertisement repeated 17 September 1790, p.4, No. 126; 24 September 1790, p.4, No. 127
RUN-AWAY from the Town of St. George, about three Months ago, a Negro-woman, named Presence, belonging to Mr. Manavit. As she had no leave of absence from her Master, whoever takes her up shall be rewarded.

Also, about three weeks ago, a Mulatto-man named Champan, a Barber belonging to Mr. Manavit. Two Joes reward will be given to whoever brings him to his Master.

Sept. 3, 1790.

IL est parti marron de la ville de St. George, il y a trois mois, une negresse nommé Presence, appartenant a Mr. Manavit, comme elle n'a point de permission de son maître, ceux où celles qui l'arrêteront auront une recompense.

Est parti marron de même il y a trois femmes, un mulatte perruquier nommé Champan, appartenant a Mr. Manavit : il y a deux moèdes de recompense pour celui qui le fera conduire a son maître.

Septembre 3 1790.
RUN-AWAY from UPPER CONFERENCE

Estate, on the 15th instant, a Mulatto Man, named La Pierre, about 25 years of age, thick made, round face, of a surly look, wears generally his hair tied in a long queue; he is both barber and carpenter; and a Negro Wench named Magdelaine, a tall stout woman; with whom said Mulatto cohabited: she has scars on the lower part of her legs, owing to blisters applied to her formerly. They are both well known in this quarter; and all Planters and other persons are earnestly required to use their utmost endeavours to apprehend them, as the said Mulatto was contriving to carry along with him a number of Negroes in a large canoc. A genteel reward will be given by John Felix Mayor, Attorney for the said estate.

Grenada, September 23.

Advertise ment repeated 1 October 1790, p.4, No. 128; 8 October 1790, p.4, No. 129
RUN-AWAY from the Subscriber, about seven weeks ago, Two Negro-women; the eldest named Florentine (or Flora) has lost her fore teeth a large scar upon her left wrist, and a cut upon her hand, a squat elderly woman.—Peggy aged about fifteen, a very flat nose, klubber lips, talks fast and a little deaf.—Whoever apprehends and brings them to their owner shall be well rewarded, and any body giving notice by whom they are harboured shall upon conviction receive FIVE JOES reward, from

THOMAS ABBOT.
DESERTED from His Majesty’s Troop of Black Dragoons the 12th of July last, William Sawyer, a Private in the said Troop. He is about 5 feet 6 inches high, very black complexion, a little marked with the small-pox, speaks the French and English languages fluently, is a great dancer, and pretends to tell fortunes by cutting of cards. He is supposed to be harboured on some of the French plantations in the quarter of Marquis.

Any person apprehending the said Deserter, and delivering him to Captain Mackeril, shall receive One Joe reward.

WILLIAM MACKERIL
Captain, Commander of the Black Troop.

Then Friday 8 October 1790, p.5, No. 129. (1 page French language supplement)
RAN-AWAY, a Mulatto Man, named Regisse, between 25 and 30 years of age, about five feet four inches high, hollow faced and bandy legged, formerly the property of Mr. Mathieu Guillet, and since under the direction of Messrs de la Touche, who took him out of the gaol of this town to send him to M. Courville of St. Lucia to be sold. His haunts are with a negro woman named Marie Ursule at Balthasar, in the parish of St. Andrew. Any person who knows him and will send him to gaol, shall be rewarded. The captains of vessels are warned not to take him off the island, under pain of being proceeded against according to law. He pretends to be free, and has several times changed his name for fear of being discovered.

De la TOUCHE.

St. George, October 19, 1790.

Le Mulatre Regisse âgé d’environ 25 à 30 ans, taille 5 pieds 4 pouces, mal jambé, visage enfoncé; ci devant a M. Mathieu Guillet, & aux feins de Messieurs de la Touche, qui l’ayant tîté de la geôle de cette île pour être envoyé a M. de Courville habitant de St. Lucie, afin d’être vendu, est marron; ses allures sont chez une negroïse nommé Marie Ursule a Balthasar, dans la paroisse de St. Andre.—L’on prie les personnes que peuvent le connaître, de la faire arreter & conduire a la geôle, en leur promettant recom pense; priant tous les capitaines de Batteaux ou goelettes de ne pas lui donner passage pour le sortir d’l’île, sous peine d’etre poursuivis en justice. Ce Mulatre se dit libre, et fait souvent change de nom pour n’être pas connu.

DE LA TOUCHE.

St. George, ce 19 Octobre 1790.
RAN AWAY, on the night between the 14th and 15th instant, a mulatto man named Jean Charles, about 18 years old, and about five feet four inches high, has a small black spot on his forehead, large feet, has lost the half of one of his fore teeth, and speaks very faint. His mother, a creole negro woman, aged about 38 years, her breasts flaccid, and eyes lively, named Ressite, ran away at the same time. As the said negro woman lived with a free mulatto man named Julian, who disappeared the same night with all his baggage, he is supposed to have effected their escape. Whoever will bring the said run-aways to the subscriber, shall receive two joes reward for each.

SAVARY V. NOISSET.

St. George's, 22d October, 1790.

La nuit de 14 à 15 du courant il est parti marron de chez la souliignée, un mulatre nommé Jean Charles, âgé d'environ 18 ans, taille 5 pieds 4 pouces, ayant une petite tache noire sur le front, pieds larges, & une dent de devant a demi cassée, repontant rapidement lorsqu'il est interrogé. Sa mere negresse creole âgée d'environ 38 ans, ayant une petite marque a l'oreille la sein affaisée, les yeux vifs, nomme Ressite, est marrone aussi. Comme la dit negresse vivait & restait chez moi avec un metit libre nommé Julien, & que ce dernier étant disparu avec tout son petit menage dans la même nuit on le soupçonne moiteur principal de leur evasion. Ceux qui conduiront les trois fugitifs auront deux moëdes de recompense pour chacun.

SAVARY V. NOISSET.

Grenade, ce 22 Octobre, 1790.
ABSENTED themselves from their owner's employ last Thursday night, the 14th instant, the following negro men, who are supposed to be gone off the island, in a small schooner that was seen all that day hovering off St. George's Bay, and towards night, came in by the river's mouth, where the following negroes were met, in the dusk of the evening, by some of their acquaintance in town. viz.

1st. Hector, of the Mocoro nation, assumes the name of Modesty, thick set, strong made, has some marks of cuts, as if with a knife above his collar bone, speaks English and French fluently, about 5 feet 8 or 9 inches high, by trade a mason, and the property of Henry Anderson, mason in St. George's.

2d. Bob, of the same nation, about 5 feet 8 inches high, very much marked with the small-pox, and stoops as he walks, has fore heels and toes, seemingly from chigoes, is by trade a mason, and the property of Mr. Anderson aforesaid.

3d. Quassy of the Caromantic nation, about 5 feet 8 inches high, of a yellowish complexion, a mason, and the property of Mr. Anderson, aforesaid.

4th. John, a creole of Grenada, about 40 years old, 5 feet 9 inches high, strong set, with a strong head, and large aquiline nose: speaks both French and English, but the former is his favorite language; has in general been employed as a driver, and has an old standing sore upon the lower joint of the great toe of his right foot, that has been always considered as incurable, but never prevented him from attending his duty in the field,—a very plausible insinuating fellow, was seen the evening he went away, with a soldier's musquet in his hand, and is the property of Duncan Forbes St. George's, Grenada. Any person or persons apprehending the above negroes, or any of them so that they may be recovered by their owners, will be liberally rewarded for their trouble, and all expenses attending the same paid.

St. George's, Grenada, October 22, 1790.
RUN-AWAY from her Employer a few weeks ago, a Negro Girl named FANNY, has her Country Marks on one cheek, stout made, about twenty-five years of age. Whoever will bring her to Doctor Gilpin, or to this Printing Office, shall receive a handsome gratuity. Any person that may be found harboring or employing the said Negro Girl, will be prosecuted as the Law directs.

Advertisement reprinted 12 November 1790, p.4, No. 134; in French 19 November 1790, p.1, No. 135; 26 November 1790, p.1, No. 136
RUN-AWAY,

FROM her Employer, a Negro-Girl, named Rose, has a remarkable large foot, large made speaks French and English, formerly belonging to Doctor Cockburn, in St. Aubert. Whoever will bring her to this Printing Office shall be handsomely rewarded.
RAN-AWAY from the estate of the subscriber, in the parish of St. Mark, a negro man named Etienne, a creole, about thirty years old, and about five feet three inches high (French measure) well made, his skin yellowish, his face marked with the small pox, and speaks a little English. Whoever discovers the said negro, is requested to take him up, and send him to the subscriber, or to St. George’s for which a handsome reward will be given.

PIERRE VIAL.

IL est parti marron, de l’Habitation du Soussigné au quartier de St. Mark, le Negre nommé Etienne creole, âgé d’environ trente ans, de la taille de cinq pieds trois pouces françois, bien constitué, d’une peau rougeatre, ayant au visage quelques marques de petite verolle, parlant Françoís & Anglais. L’on prie ceux qui pourront le faire arrêter de le faire conduire sur l’habitation ou a St. George & on donnera une recompense honnete.

PIERRE VIAL.

October 29, 1790.
RAN-AWAY from the subscriber about two weeks ago, a negro woman named Kitty of the Mandingo nation, about 20 years of age, five feet, four or five inches high, inclining to a yellowish complexion, seems a little pitted with the small-pox, speaks English and French, and was used to sell in St. George's and the Parish; she kept with a negro man named Peabo, some where near Good-Hope estate, any person that brings her to the subscriber shall receive six dollars reward, and the same if she is put in the cage.

JOHN BARRY.

Cockburn-Hall, October 26.

Advertisement reprinted 12 November 1790, p.4, No. 134
RUN-AWAY from the Subscriber about three weeks ago, a Negro Wench named Diannah, yellow complexion, of the Congo nation, with her country marks in her forehead, likely features, speaks a little French and tolerable good English about five feet ten inches high or thereabouts well known in town and Country; whoever will apprehend and deliver her to her Owner in Saint George's will be handsomely rewarded and all expences paid by MARGARET BEDFORD.

November 19th, 1790.
Run-away from the works on Richmond Heights, the 22d instant, a sailor negro, named King John, of the Moco Nation, stout and well made, about 5 feet 9 inches high, speaks English and French, and has lately been seen near Greihvile. Whoever will bring him to Mr. John Waugh, in St. George’s shall receive a Joe reward.

November 26.
MARSHAL'S OFFICE,
December 4, 1790.
NOTICE is hereby given, that there is now confined in Gaol, as a Run-away.
A New Negro-Man, who cannot or will not tell his or his owners names, five feet four inches high, has a sore on his right foot taken up at CALLIVINY, and sent to Gaol, by John Rosi.
If the said Negro-man, is not claimed in six weeks from the date of his commitment, he will then be sold to pay Gaol fees and expenses of taking him up.

BUREAU DU MARECHAL,
Le 4 Decembre 1790.
Il est detenu a la geole, un negre nouveau, ne sachant ou ne voulant dire son nom ni celui de son maître, haut d'environ 5 pieds 4 pouces, ayant un ulcer sur le pied droit; arrêté a CALLIVINY, & envoyé a la Geole, par John Rosi.
Si ledit negre, n'est pas reclamé dans six semaines, à compter du jour de son emprisonnement; il sera vendu pour payer les frais.

JEAN LESSLY, Dep. Prév. Mat.
PIRACY.
NEVIS.

On Monday morning the 6th inst. sail'd from this road the ST. LOOPI NANCY; belonging to Mr. JEREMIAH NEAL, Edward Phillips, Master, bound to St. Eustatius, with one Horse on board; about an half being between the Islands of St. Christopher and St. Eustatius; four of the crew rose on the Captain and two Passengers, and cruelly treated them; after being knock'd about till he was insensible, with a pump break, the Captain was taken and hove down the hold; were he lay for some time before he recovered, on his recovery he demanded of Murphy (the Ringleader) what he meant to be at? his answer was: to take the vessel; the Captain then demanded the Boat, which was hoisted out; accordingly he and the passengers got into it on calling off the crew; who were innocent, jump'd on board the boat with the Captain and got on shore at St. Eustatius. The crew were Negro Slaves; the property of said (NEAL) thse that rode were Murphy, Fagen, Long-Jem, and Jem.—Murphy, is a Cr of Nevis, yellow complexion, about 5 feet 9 inches high, speaks good English, and is capable of conducting a vessel through the Islands.—Fagen, is of the Congo nation, about the same height as Murphy, coal black, and speaks but indifferent English.—Long Jem, a Virginian, coal black, about 6 feet high, speaks good English, and is an arch dog.—Jem, a Virginian, coal black, about 5 feet 8 inches high, speaks good English but rather slow in delivery; each of them about 25 years old, and stout well made fellows. The Sloop was built in North Carolina about the year 1778, she since has been rebuild in Nevis; she is a square stern'd ship, her timbers cedar, her bottom pitch pine carpeneters round house, has a drooping ugle stern, 52 feet keel, 15 feet 10 inches beam, 5 feet 4 inches and 12 hold, she was all black except her rial round the waist and quarter; her name is pointed ou her stern; she is a vessel well known through the islands, any Person that will give information to said JEREMIAH NEAL, 50 that she may be recovered shall receive a Hundred Pounds Reward.

If she should be stop'd in any of the neigh-bouring Islands all reasonable expences will be paid.

St. Eustatius, December 8, 1790.
RUN A WAY, since the 20th ultimo, a negro man-boy, named Peter, formerly the property of Mr. Herbert, deceased—and is supposed to be sculking about some of the Estates upon which Mr. Herbert was manager. The said negro is about 18 years of age, tall and slender, with thick lips, and fores upon the balls of both his great toes. He speaks both French and English, and is well known about town. Any person who apprehends the said Negro or gives information of his place of concealment, so that he may be secured, will be liberally rewarded, upon applying to Mr. Waugh, St. George’s, or to the Printer of this paper.

December 17, 1790.

‘Any person who apprehends the said Negro or gives information of his place of concealment... upon applying to Mr. Waugh...’
‘RAN-AWAY the 19th instant, from Etage Estate, belonging to Mr. Eustache Marciel, the eight following negroes, viz. Vendredi, Colar, Gentleman, Alcipe, Guillaume, Wawa, Honore, and Dick. Whoever may discover the said runaways are requested to stop them and send them to their owner, for which a handsome reward may be given.

EUSTACHE MARCIEL

December 24, 1790.’
RAN-AWAY the 28th instant, from the sloop LITTLE BEN, of Dominica, now lying in the Carenage, a negro named JACOB, a creol of St. Kitt’s, has left one of his Ears and two of his upper fore teeth, about 5 feet 1 or 2 inches high, and about 26 years of age, he speaks English well & a little French.—Whoever will apprehend the said negro and bring him to Mr. James Lair, or to Mr. Jo. Flemint, in St. George’s, shall be will rewarded:

CHARLES BURNOF.

December 31, 1790.

IL est parti, maron, le 28 de ce mois, du bateau LITTLE BEN, actuellement mouillée au Carenage, un negre nommé JACOB, créol de Saint Christophe, âgé d’environ 26 ans, de la taille de 5 pieds 1 à 2 pouces, à qui il manque une oreille & deux dents supérieurs de devant, parlant bien anglais & un peu français.—Quiconque sera arrêter ledit negre & conduire à Mr. James Lair, ou à Mr. Joseph Flemint, à St. Georges, sera bien récompensé.

CHARLES BURNOF.

le 31 Décembre 1790.

Advertisement repeated 14 January 1791, p.1, No. 143
RUN-AWAY, since the 20th ultimo, a negro man-boy, named Peter, formerly the proerty of Mr. Herbert, deceased—and is supposed to be scurking about some of the Estates upon which Mr. Herbert was manager. The said negro is about 18 years of age, tall and slender, with thick lips, and sores upon the balls of both his great toes.
He speaks both French and English, and is well known about town. Any person who apprehends the said Negro or gives information of his place of concealment, so that he may be secured, will be liberally rewarded, upon applying to Mr. Waugh
St. George's, or to the Printer of this paper.

December 17, 1790.
‘RUN AWAY
ABOUT three months ago, a Negro Woman of the Coromantie Nation, named Mary Louise, the property of Louis Rosee, about 38 years of age, 4 feet 5 inches high, black complexion and has her country marks.

Any person who apprehends and brings her to John Thomas shall receive a JOE reward.’

Advertisement reprinted Friday 2 February 1798, p.1, No. 466; Friday 16 February 1798, p.1, No. 468
The St. George's Chronicle and Grenada Gazette Friday 2 February 1798, p.1, No. 466

‘RUNAWAY from the Subscriber, a Mulatto Fellow named Tom, a stout well set fellow. Whoever will apprehend him and return him to the Subscriber, will be handsomely rewarded.

HENRY STROUD

January 19.’

Advertisement reprinted Friday 9 February 1798, p.1, No. 467
‘RUNAWAY about three weeks ago, a negro boy named Jean Francois, about 18 years of age, no country marks, speaks French only. A genteel reward will be given to any person who will bring him to this Printing Office.

February 9, 1798.’
‘RUN AWAY
SINCE Friday evening last, a Negro boy named Harry, a stout made good looking boy, and speaks very good English; had on when he went off a white jacket with blue collar and cuffs, and white trowsers. Whoever brings him to Mr. Tinling, at Fort George, shall be handsomely rewarded.
    February 23.’
‘RUNAWAY about three months ago, a Negro Man named JOHN HARDMAN, the property of Clark’s Court Estate, a short, stout well made fellow, about 5 feet three inches high, had on when he went away a check shirt, blue jacket, and oznaburg trowsers, is supposed to be sculking about some of the out-posts, as he was during the Insurrection employed as a Joiner. Whoever brings said negro to the Subscriber or to Messrs. Cruden, Pollard and Co. shall be handsomely rewarded.

WILLIAM RAINY.

Advertisement reprinted Friday 16 March 1798, p.4, No. 472 (however, changed to TOM HARDMAN).
GRENADA,
WHEREAS MANETTE a Negress about 18 or 20 years of age, stout made, very black complexion, a creole of this island (born on the estate of Madame de Zoulier) hath absconded herself for many months past from the service of her former owner:
but, as she hath now become the property of the Subscriber: This is to give information That if she will come home, not the smallest punishment will be inflicted upon her.

Any person taking up the said Slave, and sending her home, or giving notification where she may be found, shall have a competent gratification for the trouble: and any person secreting or harbouring the said Slave will be proceeded against according to the laws of the Colony. She hath been accustomed to visit Mount Rodney Estate, Mount Beech, and not infrequently La Digue Plantation.

CHRISTOPHER RAPIER.

St. George’s, April 5.

Advertisement reprinted Friday 13 April 1798, p.1, No. 476.
‘RUNAWAY from the Subscriber about four months ago, a negro carpenter named JOHN of the Ibo Nation, is supposed to be harboured about Town; any person employing said negro after this advertisement shall be dealt with according to law. Any person taking up said negro and bringing him to the Cage in St. George’s or Caleviny Estate shall receive the usual reward.

ROBERT MACKELL.’

Advertisement reprinted Friday 27 April 1798, p.1, No. 478; Friday 4 May 1798, p.4 No. 479
'RUN AWAY
FROM the Schooner LAUREL, JAMES LEWIS Master, a Sailor Negro called JOHN; he is a short well set Negro, very black, and much pitted with the small-pox, has a remarkable flat nose, speaks English only, and that not very well, having been purchased formerly a new Negro.

Whoever shall apprehend said Negro, and deliver him to Mr. James Horn in the Careenage, shall be handsomely rewarded.

Masters of vessels and others are cautioned against employing or carrying off the island the above negro, as on discovery they will be proceeded against according to Law.

St. George’s, April 2, 1798.'
‘RUNAWAY nearly four months ago, a young negro girl of the Lamba nation, named Phillis, about five feet high, and has her country marks on her face, viz. three flashes on each cheek, beginning at the temples and ending at the chin. Whoever apprehends said negro and sends her to the Printing office shall receive ONE JOE Reward. May 11, 1798.’

Advertisement reprinted Friday 18 May 1798, p.4, No. 481 (but as ‘of the Camba nation...’).
‘RUNAWAY from Corinth Estate, Noel, a negro man, a tall likely fellow, speaks English and French; is an artful fellow, and may pretend to pass himself for a free man. Francois, a negro man a creole of this island, speaks English and French; he served in the black corps during the insurrection, and it is probable he may be larking about some of the out-posts. Rodney, a young negro man of the Congo nation, yellow complexion. Zelia, a negro girl of the Congo nation.

Any person who will bring the above negroes to William Kewley, in St. George’s, or James Gahagan Corinth, shall be genteely rewarded; and if any person is found harbouring said negroes, they will be prosecuted for the same.’
‘RUNAWAY a negro boy named TOM, about 14 years of age, a Creole of Antigua, (was formerly the property of Mr. Geo. Holloran, of Antigua,) has a scar over one of his eyes, or rather the inner side of the brow: his complexion is between black and yellow; and had on when he made his escape from the Schooner Helen, or Norfolk, a white oznaburg shirt and white tickling trowsers. Whoever brings him to Dr. Whiteman, in St. George’s, shall receive ONE JOE reward.

June 21, 1798.’
‘RUNAWAY from the Subscriber about three weeks ago, a Negro Wench named SOPHY, of the Couacaua Nation, about 20 years of age, short and very fat, a little marked with the Small-Pox. Whoever brings the said negro to her Mistress shall be liberally rewarded.

VEUVE RICHIER

St. George’s, July 13.’

Advertisement repeated Friday 20 July 198, p.1, No. 490
‘RUNAWAY from the Subscriber three Months ago, a negro boy about nine years old, yellow complexion, known by the name of MODEST. Whoever will bring the said negro to the Subscriber shall be handsomely rewarded.

CLOTILD FORTIN.

St. George’s, Grenada, Aug. 2, 1798.’
‘Carriacon. 25th July 1798.
ESCAPED on Tuesday night the 17th inst. from this Island, in a small Fishing Canoe, the three under-mentioned negroes.

HENRY, a creole of this Island, 20 years of age, stout, with a large head, very black skin, five feet six inches high, some-times known by the name of Townside.

SMART, a Coromantie boy, about 18 years old, five feet eight inches high, teeth projecting so as to cause an impediment in his speech, the nape of his neck much marked by the frequent insertion of seatons.

QUAMY, a creole of this Island, 18 years old, very tall, visage somewhat ugly.

The two former belong to Mount Pleasant, the last to Grand Bay Estates in this Island. Whoever apprehends the above negroes, and will bring them to WILLIAM POSTLETHWAITE Esq. in St. George’s, shall receive a reward of FIVE JOES.

N.B. The canoe was found the next day a little above the Town of Gourave, and the negroes were seen on the public road leading from thence to St. George’s. They all speak both English and French fluently.’
‘RUNAWAY this day from this Island in a canoe, three negro men the property of Peter Pegus, Esq. viz. JEAN FRANCOISE, from Hermitage Estate, a creole, about twenty-five years of age, stout made, of a very black complexion, and a good deal pock pitted, about 5 feet 6 inches high.

SYLVESTER, from the same Estate, a young creole, about 18 years of age, well made, and of a brownish complexion, about 5 feet 8 inches high.

JANGA, from Union Estate, a young creole about 12 years of age, well made, and of a very black smooth complexion, about 5 feet 8 inches high.

N.B. They all speak French and English, and as it is supposed they are landed in Grenada, a reward of FIVE JOES is hereby offered to any person who may apprehend any of the above negroes and lodge them in the goal of St. George.

DAVID YOUNG
Attorney for Mr. Pegus.

Carriacon, August 31, 1798.’
‘RUNAWAY from Dunfermline Estate, two New Negro men, lately purchased, JOHN, five feet eight inches high, stout, and marked in the face, thick lips and disagreeable complexion. – SANCHO, rather thin, five feet five inches high, marked in the face the same as John: they had on them blue jackets and hats, and osnaburg trowsers. Whoever apprehends them and will deliver them to the Manager upon said Estate, or to Mr. James M’Nure in St. George’s, shall be gratefully rewarded.

There are also absent from the said Estate, for a long time back, a man named Pontac, and a woman named Betty.’

Advertisement reprinted Friday 14 September 1798, p.4, No. 498.
The St. George’s Chronicle and Grenada Gazette Friday 7 September 1798, p.3, No. 497.

‘RUNAWAY from the Subscriber about two weeks ago, a negro woman named NANCY, but gives herself the name of May Joan, of a yellow complexion, about thirty years of age: and has her country marks under each of her eyes: speaks French fluently and very little English. Whoever will apprehend said negro shall receive FOUR DOLLARS reward.

NANCY BENNETT.’

Advertisement reprinted Friday 14 September 1798, p.1, No. 498.
'RUNAWAY from the Schooner Aimable Alert, Captain Garns, a new negro man, of the Angola Nation; had on a blue jacket, check trousers, a fine linen shirt, about 5 feet 6 or 7 inches high, rather a flat and broad countenance very open, with a long beard and speaks no English, but may answer to the name of STERN. – Whoever takes up the said negro and sends him to Dunfermline Estate, or James M’Nure, St. George’s, shall be rewarded for their trouble.

Grenada, Sept. 20.'
‘RUNAWAY from Greenville Vale Estate, on the 25th July last, a negro wench named Lucinda, of the Ibo nation, about 5 feet 6 inches high, speaks French fluently, but with that accent peculiar to her nation, of a very dark complexion, with her country marks above each temple. Whoever will secure [her] in the cage in St. George’s, or deliver her to James Hav, Esq. or Alexander Gatt, on said Estate shall be gratefully rewarded.’

Advertisement reprinted Friday 2 November 1798, p.1, No. 505
'RUNAWAY from Mount Cassel Estate, a negro man named BOB, formerly the property of Widow Casse Rochard, he is stout and well made, about five feet seven inches high, very black complexioned, has often been seen lately working upon Belvue Estate, and frequently seen upon Industry Estate at Duquesne. Any person that will bring the said negro to Madame Lequoy, or to James Mays, Esq. shall receive ONE JOE reward. Any person found harbouring the said negro after this notice, will be prosecuted as the law directs.

St. George’s, November 8, 1708.'

Advertisement reprinted, Friday 16 November 1798, p.1, No. 507
‘RUNAWAY from Industry Estate since the Month of March last, a negro man named AMENT, of the Coromantee Nation, about 5 feet 6 inches high, and about 30 years of age, speaks French fluently, and a little English, or a dark complexion, with his country marks on each temple, he had when he went away sores on each of his legs. Whoever will deliver him to Layfield Croft in St. George’s, or to John French on said Estate, shall be handsomely rewarded.’

Advertisement reprinted Friday 30 November 1798, p.1, No. 509; Friday 7 December 1798, p.4, No. 510.
‘MARSHAL’s OFFICE.
NOTICE is hereby given, that there is now confined in goal, as a runaway, the following SLAVE, viz.

Nov. 12. A negro wench who says her name is Nanny, a Creole of this Island, about 17 or 18 years of age, taken to goal by John Wilson, had on her leg when taken, an iron pudding of a monstrous size, along with a chain and a piece of old iron hoop.

If the said Slave is not claimed in six weeks from the date of her commitment, she will be then be [sic] sold to pay goal fees and expences of taking up.’
‘RUNAWAY about four months ago, a creole negro wench named EMMY, about 18 years of age, yellow complexion, was lately seen on Madame La Mellerie’s estate – Whoever brings said runaway to this Printing Office, shall receive a reward of ONE JOE.’
The St. George’s Chronicle and Grenada Gazette Friday 7 December 1798, p.1, No. 510.

‘ABSENTED himself from his Master, under the apprehension of punishment for Theft (as it is supposed), a negro lad named MARS, of the Camba Nation, much marked with his country marks in his face. He has been seen about the Town of St. George several times. This is to give notice that a reward of ONE JOE will be given to any person that will apprehend and lodge him in the Cage or deliver him to the Printer, and whoever shall be found employing him after this date may expect to be prosecuted according to Law.

December 7.’

Advertisement reprinted Friday 14 December 1798, p.1, No. 511; Friday 28 December 1798, p.4, No. 513
Advertisement reprinted Friday 11 January 1799, p.1, No. 515; 18 January 1799, p.1, No. 516

SEE ALSO
ABSENTED from Granton estate about a month ago, four new negro men who neither speak English nor French. Sam, about six feet high, slender made; Balla, about five feet ten inches high, stout made; Peter, about five feet eight inches high, stout made, and Dick, about 5 feet eight inches high, slender made, all of the Mandingo Nation. Whoever apprehends the said negroes or any of them, and deliver them to James Johnstone, Esq., in St. George's, or Mr. McWilliam, on Granton Estate, will be gratefully rewarded.

N. B. Any person who wants employment as Overseer on a Sugar Estate, will please to apply to the above gentlemen.
January 11, 1799.

ABSENTED herself about seven weeks ago, a negro girl belonging to the Estate of the late Henry Foderingham, deceased, named JENNY ESTHER, a creole of Barbados, about eighteen years of age, of a yellow complexion, middle size, thin made, her hair short and thin, has the mark of a cut over her right Temple; had on when she went away, an oznaburgs wrapper and petticoat with a blue kerchief about her Head. It is supposed that she is lurking about some of the Estates near the Town, as she was lately seen on Mount Gay Estate. Whoever apprehends the said negro slave and brings her to the Subscriber in St. George's shall receive Eight Dollars reward.

JOHN BEGG.
ABSENTED himself about three weeks ago,
a Creole negro man belonging to Stowe's Wood and Co. named Caesar, a Cooper by trade, about 5 feet 8 or 10 inches high, very stout, speaks both French and English, supposed to be about Marquis. Whoever will bring the said negro to John Tucker, in St. George's, shall be handsomely rewarded.
Absented herself about seven weeks ago, a negro girl belonging to the Estate of the late Henry Poderingham, deceased, named Jenny Esther, a creole of Barbados about eighteen years of age, of a yellow complexion, middle size, thin made, her hair short and thin, has the mark of a cut over her right temple; had on when she went away, an oznaburgs wrapper and petticoat with a blue handkerchief about her head. It is supposed that she is lurking about some of the estates near the Town; as she was lately seen on Mount Gay Estate. Whoever apprehends the said negro slave and brings her to the subscriber in St. George’s shall receive eight dollars reward.

John Begg.

Advertisement reprinted Friday 25 January 1799, p.1, No. 517; Friday 1 February 1799, p.4, No. 518.
RUNAWAY from the Subscriber, CLOTILDE, a Cabress, the daughter of Zabeth a mulatto woman, also the property of the said Subscriber. Said Clotilde pretends to be Free; and her owner declares she was never manumitted, nor did he at any time, sign any such Act, nor Bill of Sale, nor give any power to that effect. Whoever shall be found harbouring the said Cabress shall be sued as the Law directs.

JULIAN LUSSAN.

St. George's, Jan. 24, 1799.
NOTICE is hereby given that there is now confined in goal, as runaways, the following slaves, viz.

Dec. 24. A negro man about 25 years of age, says he belongs to a Madame Dupue of Carriacou, and was brought to this Island by a Captain of some vessel who wanted to sell him, which made him runaway, was taken upon Mon Desire Estate, and sent to goal by Joachim Amour, had on a pair of trowsers with a tarry frock.

— 29. A negro boy who pretends to be free, sent to goal by Justice Mays, about 18 years of age, says he was born at Marquis.

If the said slaves is not claimed in six weeks from the date of their commitment, they will then be told to pay goal fees and expenses of taking up.
RUNAWAY from Cape Sel's Estate a negro named JOP about 18 years of age, of the Congo nation, a Fisher. Whoever may bring him to Mr. Martin, Manager on said Estate, or to Mr. Waugh in St. George's shall receive One Joe reward.
Grenada, Febr. 1, 1799.
The St. George’s Chronicle and Grenada Gazette Friday 29 March 1799, p.4, No. 526.

Name is FELICITE BOISFREME

Advertisement reprinted Friday 5 April 1799, p.4, No. 527
April 12.

ABSCONDED on Friday last from the Subscriber a New Negro Girl named Peggy, about twelve years old, cannot speak English or French, had on when she went away a dark calico petticoat, white wrapper, and red handkerchief, is supposed to have strayed to the Country; any person that will deliver said girl to her Master, shall receive Four Dollars reward.

HENRY STROUD.

April 12.
RUNAWAY, a few days ago, a stout healthy New Negro Man, he speaks neither French nor English, but answers to the name of Christmas, and is very remarkable from having the joint of the sore finger of his right hand cut off. Whoever will bring him to the Subscriber shall be handsomely rewarded.

JOHN WAKE.
RUNAWAY from M'Defrie estate, a Negro Man named APOLLON, about 5 feet 9 or 10 inches high, of a dark complexion, and stout made. Caution is hereby given to all persons that may be found harbouring the said negro, that they will be punished as the law directs, and whoever will bring the said negro to Joachim Amour in St. George's, or to Arthur Johnson on said estate, shall be handsomely rewarded.

ARTHUR JOHNSON.
Runaway

A NEW Negro Wench, who understands a little English, named COMBA, of the Congo nation, about four feet nine inches high, with a mark on the forehead and on each side of her temple, had on when she went away a Oznaburgh wrapper and coat. Whoever brings her to the Printing Office, will be handsomely rewarded.
NOTICE is hereby given that there is now confined in goal, as a runaway, the following Slave, viz.

April 21.—A negro man as a runaway taken up by one of the Black Corp and sent to goal, says his name is John Louis, betwixt 40 and 50 years of age, about 5 feet 10 inches high, stout made of a dark complexion, with both of his feet swelled, says he is a Creole, and belongs to some estate at Point Saline.

If the said Slave is not claimed in six weeks from the date of his commitment, he will then be sold to pay goal fees and expense of taking up.

Sitting Justices for the ensuing week—Hon. Alexander Cockburn, the Rev. Thomas May, and John M. Burnie, Esquires.
‘RUNAWAY from M’Desire estate, a Negro Man named APOLLON, about 5 feet 9 or 10 inches high, of a dark complexion, and stout made. Caution is hereby given to all persons that may be found harbouring the said negro, that they will be prosecuted as the law directs. and whoever will bring the said negro to Jaochim Armour in St. George’s, or to Arthur Johnson on said estate, shall be handsomely rewarded.

ARTHUR JOHNSON.’

Advertisement reprinted Friday 7 June 1799, p.4, No. 536
‘MARSHAL’s OFFICE,
NOTICE is hereby given that there is now confined in goal, as a runaway, the following SLAVE, viz.
April 21, A negro man as a runaway taken up by one of the Black Corp, and sent to goal, says his name is John Louis, betwixt 40 and 50 years of age, about 5 feet 10 inches high, stout made of a dark complexion, with both of his feet swelled, says he is a Creole, and belongs to some estate at Point Saline.
If the said Slave is not claimed in six weeks from the date of his commitment, he will then be sold to pay goal fees and expence of taking up.’

Reprinted Friday 7 June 1799, p.4, No. 536

Reprinted again Friday 21 June 1799, p.4, No. 538 ‘RUNAWAY about ten days ago, a negro wench named KATTY, well known in this town as a huxter, and has for some time past lived in Lower Monserrat, with a fellow her husband supposed to be the property of the late Edmund Proudfoot, Esq. and with whom it is supposed she has embezeled [sic] the property she was entrusted to sell, which must be the cause of her running away; she has no pass, and whoever will take her up and lodge her in any cage of this island, or bring her to this Printing Office, shall be handsomely rewarded. Those found harbouring her after this public notice shall be prosecuted with the utmost rigour of the law.’
Runaway

FROM Pearl Estate about the 20th of April, Two New Negro men, of the Ibo nation, of middle stature, one of whom is a Britchie negro of slender make and deep black complexion, the other is a stout man of yellowish complexion, marked with three scores on each temple. The former had on when he went away a hat, Oznaburgh frock and trowsers, the latter a hat and frock.

The customary reward will be paid on delivering the said negroes to Henry Rosh, Esq. at Pearl or Providence estates, or to William Laurie in St. George.
Runaway

FROM Pearl Estate about the 20th of April,
Two New Negroes, of the Ibo nation, of middle stature, one of whom is a bristly negro of slender make and deep black complexion, the other is a stout man of yellowish complexion, marked with three scores on each temple. The former had on when he went away a hat, Osnaburgh frock and trousers, the latter a hat and frock.
The customary reward will be paid on delivering the said negroes to Henry Rush, Esq. at Pearl or Providence estates, or to William Laurie in St.
George.
Runaway

FROM the subscriber, a Negro Man named JOSEPH, about twenty years of age, well made, about five feet high has been missing from the said subscriber since the 8th inst. Whoever apprehends the said slave and brings him to the subscriber, or to Madame Dedé in St. George's, shall be handsomely rewarded.

DUBRY

Advertisement reprinted Friday 28 June 1799, p.4, No. 539; Friday 5 July 1799, p.4, No. 540; Friday 12 July 1799, p.4, No. 541; Friday 19 July 1799, p.4, No. 542; Friday 26 July 1799, p.4 No. 543
Runaway,

ABOUT three months ago, a Negro Man named Dichingham, about five feet 8 inches high, has his country marks on both sides of his face; speaks very fast and stammers a little in his speech; he is supposed to be harboured at Mount Cardigan, where he goes by the name of Boy; that he may not be discovered.—Whoever will apprehend the said negro and bring him to the subscriber shall receive a Joe reward.

WILLIAM STEEL.
Runaway.

A Negro boy called Jack, a creole of Belmont Estate, Grand Pauvre, late the property of James Riddel, now of Thomas Browne, Esqr. about sixteen years of age, well made, speaks both English and French, is well known in town and country; had on when he absconded a white shirt and trowsers, has been a month absent, during which he has frequently imposed on the Gentlemen in the country, by telling them he was carrying letters for his master. Whoever brings him to the subscriber, shall receive two Joes reward.

DAVID LINTON.
Runaway,

FROM Beaugency Estate, NOEL, a Creole of this Island, about 35 years of age, well made, and formerly the property of Guillaume la Tarte;—he is well known in the quarter of Marquis, and has frequently been seen on la Sageffe, Providence and Requin estates.—Whoever will lodge him in the cage, or send him to the subscriber in St. George’s, shall receive One Joe reward.

JAMES JOHNSTONE.
Runaway,

A BOUT three months ago, a Negro Man named Dicchingham, about five feet 8 inches high, has his country marks on both sides of his face; speaks very fast and flammers a little in his speech; he is supposed to be harboured at Mount Cardigan, where he goes by the name of Boy, that he may not be discovered. — Whoever will apprehend the said negro and bring him to the subscriber shall receive a Joe reward.

WILLIAM STEEL.
Advertisement reprinted Friday 9 August 1799, p.4, No. 545; Friday 23 August 1799, p.4, No. 547.
A New negro woman of the Ibo nation, was stopped at Balsazar estate in St. Andrew’s parish, who can not or will not tell her master’s name, nor the place of his residence if she is claimed within eight days from this date, she will be delivered up on paying the reward and the expence of this advertisement, but if not claimed then, she will be sent to the public goal.

Apply to Mr. Perry on said estate.
NOTICE is hereby given that there is now confined in goal, as a runaway, the following Slave, viz.

27th July—A negro man taken in the woods above Grand Pauvre, and sent to goal as a runaway by Col. Carmicheal, says his name is Peter and that he belongs to Waltham estate, about 6 feet 3 inch. high of the Chamo nation, about 30 years of age, had on when taken a piece of bamboo round his middle.

If the said Slave is not claimed in six weeks from the date of his commitment, he will then be sold to pay goal fees and expense of taking up.
Runaway.

A negro man named Jacob of the Mandingo nation, about 6 feet 10 inches high, a little pitted with the small pox, has his country marks, three long cuts on each side of his face, a little ruptured, he served some time in Captain Davis's company towards the end of the insurrection and is believed to be well known among the Black Corps; has been absent since March.

A negro woman named Rosette, short stature, of the Ibo nation, and yellow cast, near sighted and no country marks; was absent a considerable time previous to and during the insurrection, absent herself a few days ago.

Both these negroes speak English and French, and belong to Mount Gay estate. Whoever brings them to Mr. Boyd, the manager will be handsomely rewarded.
Runaway,

ABOUT three weeks ago, two negro men, one named Jean Pierre, 19 years of age, the other named Jean Baptiste about 23 years of age, both creeds of this island and of a yellow complexion, stout and well made; are supposed to be lurking about Grand Pauvre. Whoever brings said negroes to the Printing Office, or either of them, shall receive a Joe reward for each.
Kunaway,

A Negro boy named Always, about 13 years of age, and five feet high, born in this island, black complexion and well made. Whoever apprehends him, and brings him to Major Streicher at Richmond hill, shall be handsomely rewarded.

Advertisement reprinted Friday 30 August 1799, p.4, No. 548
Runaway.

From Mount D'Or estate 31st August 1799, a negro named Daniel, the property of Madame Delbours Duranti. Whoever brings said negro to Madame Duranti in St. George's or to Thomas Tomkins on said estate shall be handsomely rewarded.
Runaway.

YESTERDAY morning, a new negro girl who was purloined out of the last cargo, is about 4 feet 4 inches high, can speak no English, is of the Mandingo nation, she had on when she absconded an Oznaburghs rapper and a red woollen petticoat; any person that will deliver her to the subscriber will receive 2 dollars reward.

THOMAS POSTLETHWAITE

Advertisement reprinted Friday 13 September 1799, p.1, No. 550

Relevant advertisement (most recent, and fits) Friday 9 August 1799, p.2, No. 545.
Runaway.

FROM Mount D'or estate 31st August 1799, a negro named Daniel, the property of Madame Delhousie Duranti. — Whoever brings said negro to Madame Duranti in St. George's or to Thomas Tomkiss on said estate shall be handsomely rewarded.
Runaway,

A Negro boy named Ben, (the property of Samuel McLean, Esq. St. Vincent) speaks good English and a little French. He was carried to Carriacou by one St. Hilaire, afterwards came down to St. George’s and was taken and harboured by a free black man named Anderson or Henderson. Whoever harbours the aforesaid boy, will be prosecuted with the utmost rigour of the law, and if any person will bring him to the Printer, will receive one Joe reward.

Advertisement reprinted Friday 4 October 1799, p.1, No. 553; Friday 11 October 1799, p.1, No. 554
Runaway,

A Creole girl named Maffey, well known both in town and country; any person bringing her to the subscriber shall be handsomely rewarded. Caution is given to persons employing her, or concealing her as they will be dealt with according to law.

JOHN WAKE.
Runaway.

A field negro of the name of Tony lately from Tobago, aged about 30 years; 5 or 6 feet in height, stout and heavy built, with a sultry countenance, swelled about the ankles, supposed to be loitering about the town as he is unacquainted in the island.—Any person bringing the above negro to the Printer, will receive a five reward.

Advertisement reprinted Friday 25 October 1799, p.1, No. 556
The St. George's Chronicle and Grenada Gazette Friday 25 October 1799, p.1, No. 556.

Advertisement reprinted Friday 1 November 1799, p.1, No. 557
One Joe Reward,

For the recovery of the well known Creole negro wench, Sally, formerly the property of Gordon Turnbull, Esq. — Apply to the Printer.

Nov. 8, 99.

Advertisement reprinted Friday 15 November 1799, p.1, No. 559; Friday 22 November 1799, p.4, No. 560
NOTICE is hereby given that there is now confined in goal, as a runaway, the following slave, viz.

4th Nov.—John Boston, a negro man sent to goal as a runaway by Mr. O'Sullivan, says he is free and was born in Martinique, blind in the left eye, appears to be wounded in three places which he says he received in the engagement betwixt Admiral Duncan and de Winter, one of them over his left eye, one on the left hand and across the throat, about 5 feet 8 or 9 inches high, stout made of a dark complexion, seemingly about 40 years of age. If the said Slave is not claimed in six weeks from the date of his commitment, he will then be told to pay goal fees and expense of taking up.
MARSHAL'S OFFICE,

NOTICE is hereby given that there is now confined in goal, as runaways, the following slaves, viz.

4th Nov.—John Boston, a negro man sent to goal as a runaway by Mr. O'Sullivan, says he is free and was born in Martinique, blind in the left eye, appears to be wounded in three places which he says he received in the engagement between Admiral Duncan and de Winter, one of them over his left eye, one on the left hand and across the throat, about 5 feet 2 or 3 inches high, stout, made of a dark complexion; seemingly about 40 years of age.

27th Nov.—A new negro of the Congo nation taken at Gouyave and sent to goal as a runaway by John O'Meally; has his country marks on his breast and belly, thin made, had nothing on him when sent to goal as a piece of blanket round his middle, about 5 feet 7 or 8 inches high, and about 26 years of age.

27th Nov.—A negro named Lictor, taken in the woods and sent to goal, pretends to be free, says he is a Creole, about 5 feet 4 inches high, very stout, made of a yellow complexion, and 24 years of age.

28th. Nov.—A new negro as a runaway taken up on Tampe estate, cannot or will not tell his owners name, of the Mooco nation, about 5 feet 6 inches high, had on a blue jacket with a green neck, has been inoculated for the small pox in both his arms apparently very lately, about 22 years of age.

If the said slaves are not claimed in six weeks from the date of his commitment, he will then be sold to pay goal fees and expense of taking up.
Runaway,

SINCE Saturday last, a new negro boy named TOM, of the Mandingo nation, between nine and ten years of age, pretty much marked over the skin with the disorder called the Craw. Craws, no country marks, speaks a little English, had on when he went away a pair of Osnaburg trowsers, but has been since seen entirely naked.—A free reward will be paid to any person who will bring him to the subscriber, in lower Montserrat, and any person found harbouring him shall be prosecuted with the utmost rigour.

WILLIAM YOUNG.

Nov. 18, 99.
Runaway,

A FEW days ago a new negro girl of the Jambo nation, yellow complexion with fore eyes, about 13 years of age, sneaks a little English. Whoever brings her to the subscriber, will be handsomely rewarded, and any person or persons harbouring the said wench after this notice will be prosecuted according to law.

P. WESTMORLAND.

Dec. 6. 99.
NOTICE is hereby given that there is now confined in goal, as runaways, the following slaves, viz.

4th Nov.—John Boston, a negro man sent to goal as a runaway by Mr. O'Sullivan, says he is free and was born in Martinique, blind in the left eye, appears to be wounded in three places which he says he received in the engagement betwixt Admiral Duncan and de Winter, one of them over his left eye, one on the left hand and across the throat, about 5 feet 8 or 9 inches high, stout made of a dark complexion, seemingly about 40 years of age.

27th Nov.—A new negro of the Congo nation taken at Gouyave and sent to goal as a runaway by John O'Mearly, has his country marks on his breast and belly, thin made, had nothing on him when sent to goal as a piece of blanket round his middle, about 5 feet 7 or 8 inches high, and about 26 years of age.

27th Nov.—A negro named Listor, taken in the woods and sent to goal, pretends to be free, says he is a creole, about 5 feet 4 inches high, very stout made of a yellow complexion, and 24 years of age.

28th Nov.—A new negro as a runaway taken up on Tamar Estate, cannot or will not tell his owners name, of the Mocco nation, about 5 feet 6 inches high, had on a blue jacket with a green neck, has been inoculated for the smallpox in both his arms apparently very lately, about 22 years of age. If the said Slaves are not claimed in six weeks from the date of his commitment, he will then be sold to pay goal fees and expence of taking up.
Runaway,

FROM the subscriber, two negro men called Charles and Dick, of the Congo nation, also two negro women called Emily and Sophy. The said four slaves was of late the property of Richard Manly, Esq. Notice is hereby given, whoever will take up the said four slaves, and deliver them to Mr. Labarne on Richmond estate, shall be handsomely rewarded.

JOSEPH DARGENT.

Dec. 20, 99.