Commencement

Commencement

Baxter Black, D.V.M., the commencement speaker

Commencement exercises for the 103rd graduating class were held on May 16, 1988 at the Zellerbach Theatre. Baxter Black, D.V.M., a poet, humorist and philosopher from Colorado gave the Commencement Address. Dean Edwin J. Andrews then presented the diplomas to 106 members of the Class of 1988 and one member of the Class of 1987.

Class President Brent Carlson gave an address and was presented the Class Flag by Dr. Jay Simmons (V'56). Dean Andrews, assisted by Dr. Paul Orsini, then presented awards and prizes to a number of graduates and recognized those graduating with honors. The administration of the Veterinarian's Oath by Dr. Kenton S. Stokes (V'68), president of the Pennsylvania Veterinary Medical Association, concluded the ceremony and everyone gathered at a reception for the graduates and their families.
