Commencement 2005

Students and their families assembled at the Zellerbach Theatre of the Annenberg Center on May 16 for the 120th Commencement Exercises of the School.

With the Class of 2005, Penn has graduated 6,158 veterinarians, 2,059 women and 4,099 men. The Class of 2005 numbered 105 and is composed of 72 women and 33 men.

Dean Alan M. Kelly welcomed everyone and introduced Christine C. Connelly, chairperson, School of Veterinary Medicine Board of Overseers. Calling her a “model of excellence,” Dean Kelly awarded her the silver Bellwether Medal, which is the highest recognition given by the School.

The commencement address was given by Edwin Sayres, president and chief executive officer of the American Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals. Mr. Sayres received the bronze Bellwether Medal for Distinguished Leadership for his compelling record of achievement in animal welfare.

In the presentation of diplomas and hooding, Dr. Kelly was assisted by Dr. Gary Smith, Dean’s Awardee for Leadership in Clinical Science Education; Dr. John R. Pehrson, Dean’s Awardee for Leadership in Basic Science Education; and Associate Dean Jeffrey A. Wortman, V’69.

Marshall was Dr. Charles D. Newton, deputy associate dean.

Class President Michelle Elizabeth Rosero, V’05, presented comments and received the Class Flag from James V. Stewart, V’68, president of the Veterinary Medical Alumni Society. Dr. Kelly then awarded the prizes to the graduates, assisted by Dr. Wortman.

The Veterinarian’s Oath was administered by Timothy J. Ireland, V’90, president of the Pennsylvania Veterinary Medical Association.
