Animal Crackers

instances of bites, the owner is at fault—by neglect, purposeful training toward aggression, or even misguided efforts to breed larger, more "macho" dogs.

Socialization and training are critically important in producing the temperament of an individual dog. The Rottweiler and American Staffordshire terrier score as high or higher in temperament tests than dogs traditionally considered family-oriented or safe.

The American Kennel Club has issued the following statement in response to legislation that singles out specific breeds:

"The American Kennel Club supports reasonable, enforceable, nondiscriminatory laws to govern the ownership of dogs. The AKC believes that dog owners should be responsible for their dogs. We support laws that: establish a fair process by which specific dogs are identified as "dangerous" based on stated, measurable actions; impose appropriate penalties on irresponsible owners; and establish a well-defined method for dealing with dogs proven to be dangerous. We believe that, if necessary, dogs proven to be "dangerous" may need to be humanely destroyed. The American Kennel Club strongly opposes any legislation that determines a dog to be "dangerous" based on specific breeds or phenotypic classes of dogs."

“Take a Seat” Campaign

With plans for the new Teaching and Research Building in the final stages, we want to update alumni and friends on the progress of the “Take a Seat” campaign, an initiative that offers classroom seats in the new building to those interested in naming a seat, honoring/remembering a special someone or a beloved pet. As of October 31, 2003, more than 170 of the 260 available classroom seats have been designated. The list that follows represents those who have completed or are in the process of completing a booked pledge (pledge/gift form must have been submitted to the Development Office).

A classroom seat can be dedicated for a tax-deductible contribution of $3,000 that is payable over a five-year period. If you have questions regarding the “Take a Seat” campaign, please contact Dori Myers, Major Gifts Officer, in the School’s Development Office at (215) 746-7438 or via e-mail at <dmyers@vet.upenn.edu>.
