

observations on the Anglo-American anthropological community between the two World Wars. Also of interest are diaries for the year 1915, which essentially deals with Keith's own American tour, and for the period from 1921 to 1932.

The several hundred unbound letters in this collection include exchanges with such notable figures as Davidson Black, V. Gordon Childe, Eugene Dubois, W. K. Gregory, Earnest A. Hooten, Aleš Hrdlička, L. S. B. Leakey, Henry Fairfield Osborn, and H. G. Wells. There is also a large collection of letters written between 1935 to 1954 by a woman who identifies herself as "M," a lifelong friend of Keith and his deceased wife. These letters provide an intimate picture of Keith's private life after the death of his wife, Celia, in 1934.

Further information on the Keith papers can be obtained from Mr. E. H. Cornelius, Librarian, The Royal College of Surgeons of England, 35-43 Lincoln's Inn Fields, London WC2A 3PN, England.

II. NAVAJO RESEARCH MATERIALS OF ALEXANDER AND DOROTHEA LEIGHTON

Alexander H. and Dorothea C. Leighton have agreed to give to the Special Collections of Northern Arizona University their important Navajo research materials. Over a period of time NAU will become the repository of various manuscripts, journals, field notes, letters, still photographs and materials, including a number of Navajo autobiographies (NAU Anthropology, V:4-VI:1 [February 1982]).

III. MANUSCRIPT COLLECTIONS IN PSYCHOLOGY AND RELATED AREAS

Michael M. Sokol and Patrice A. Rafail have compiled A Guide to Manuscript Collections in the History of Psychology and Related Areas which is being published by Kraus International Publications (Millwood, N.Y.). Materials on anthropology are included as they relate to psychology. The Guide is divided into two main sections: one describing more than 500 North American manuscript collections (arranged alphabetically according to the names of persons, families and institutions), and a second describing the major manuscript repositories in North America and Europe.

RESEARCH IN PROGRESS

Stephen J. Cross (doctoral candidate in the history of science, Johns Hopkins) is doing research on the organization of interdisciplinary, problem-oriented research in America after World War I, using the Rockefeller, NRC and SSRC records, and focusing on local university enterprises, including the Institute of Human Relations at Yale and the Harvard Business School Group (Mayo, Warner, etc.).

Ralph Dexter (Biological Sciences, Kent State U.) is revising his manuscript on "The Putnam-Metz Correspondence on Mound Explorations in Ohio" for publication.

May Ebihara (Anthropology, Graduate School, CUNY) is doing research on the social organization of American ethnology, ca. 1925-55, focusing on relationships between social networks and the development/dissemination of particular theoretical orientations, on the basis of interviews and university archives.

Victor Golla (Anthropology, George Washington U.) is preparing the correspondence between Edward Sapir and Alfred Kroeber for publication, using materials in the Bancroft Library, Berkeley, and the Museum of Man, Ottawa.

Jesse Green (English, Chicago State U.) is working on the history of anthropological work at Zuni pueblo and on a study of the first generation of anthropologists in the Southwest in the 1880s and 1890s.

Ruth Harris (doctoral candidate in the history of science and medicine, Oxford) is researching a dissertation entitled "Murders and Madness: Legal Psychiatry and Criminal Anthropology in Paris, 1880-1910."

Robert Jones (Sociology, U. of Illinois, Urbana) has reoriented his research on William Robertson Smith to cover the general process of "secularization of consciousness" in Scotland from the high Middle Ages until the late nineteenth century--although there will still be a long chapter on the scientific study of religion in Scotland, and a detailed chapter on Smith.

Dr. Edward and Amalie M. Kass (Harvard Medical School) are carrying on research for a biography of Thomas Hodgkin, physician, ethnologist, and founder of the Aborigines Protection Society.

Robert Nye (History, U. of Oklahoma) is completing a book entitled "Politics and Pathology: The Rise of a Medical Model of Deviance in the French Third Republic."

Kathleen Mooney (Anthropology, U. of Victoria, B.C.) is currently doing field research with members of the Hunt family for a biography of George Hunt.

Richard Preston (Anthropology, McMaster U.) is doing research on Edward Sapir's ideas on linguistic drift.

Nancy Sacharoff (Doctoral candidate, anthropology, San Francisco State U.) is doing research on the sources of Paul Radin's anthropology.

Richard B. Woodbury (Weatherwood Rd., RFD 3, Amherst, MA 01002) is preparing a history of the Pecos Conference, and would welcome personal recollections and reminiscences--particularly relating to the conferences at Chaco Canyon between 1927 and 1941.
