

New Bolton Center Day at the Races

The sun came out on this year's New Bolton Center Day at the Races in Saratoga raising the spirits and good cheer of more than 100 gathered friends. Horses honored on this festive occasion included:

DOUBLE FLORIN

by Laurie J. Landeau, V. M. D.

GAI MINOIS

by Mrs. Wylie F. L. Tuttle

HEIGHT OF FASHION

by H.H. Shaikh Hamdan bin
Rashid al Maktoum

I'M SWEETS

by Brushwood Stable

LORD SUTLER

by Mr. & Mrs. Vincent B.
Murphy, Jr.

MR. FRISK

by Mrs. Harry J. Duffey

TOPICOUNT

by Mr. & Mrs. Judson L. Streicher

VICTORIAN HILL

by Mr. & Mrs. William C. Lickle

At a between race auction, Mrs. Philip B. Hofmann purchased "The Equine Comedy" a painting by Peb donated especially for the event. Proceeds of the benefit will support Dr. Jill Beech's studies on the underlying causes of "tying up" and provide nuclear medicine diagnostics at the Center.

Mrs. J. Maxwell Moran, chairman of the event, joins former Dean, Dr. Mark W. Allam, and Board of Overseers member, Mr. Vincent B. Murphy, Jr. with his wife, Patricia, and daughter, Karen, AT THE RAIL in Saratoga.

Dean Edwin J. Andrews shares a moment with the high bidder of Peb's "Equine Comedy", Mrs. Philip B. Hofmann.

Mrs. Jane Lunger, who attended the Day at the Races at Saratoga, generously hosted a party last Spring as a show of support for New Bolton Center. It was most gratifying to have so many friends join the pleasant occasion which was held at the Vicmead Country Club near Wilmington, Delaware.

One of the special guests attending the party, Ms. Mary Tyler Moore, confers about the next race with Dr. Dean Richardson, assistant professor of surgery at New Bolton Center.